

What's happening!

Hello!...Easter has just passed and the holiday that brings us the funny looking bunnies and the dyed hard boiled eggs has drifted into the annals of memorable conversation. Before the smoke completely disappears, let us reminisce a moment on some of the happenings, plus shed some light on things to come.

SPRING DANCE...

The Omega Psi Phi Fraternity of Charlotte held its annual spring formal dance last Friday night, April 13, downtown in Charlotte's Civic Center. As usual, this affair boasted all of the things that make for great fun.

The band, Brief Encounter, from North Wilkesboro put on a stunning performance for the many guests.

Bob Johnson

They played many contemporary tunes with the style and rhythm that made them one of the leading groups in this area. They also added the musical spice to the dance.

The guests, which included many people from far and near, were in a good holiday mood, and they really burst loose. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Donald McClure from Washington, D.C., Mr. and Mrs. Tennyson Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest C. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Grigsby, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Roddey, Mr. and Mrs. James Sims, A. D. Neal, Flip Ingram, Stanley Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Davis from Orangeburg, S.C., Mr. and Mrs. Charley Cherry, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Johnson, Jr., Oren McCullough, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Maxwell, James Smith, Mr. and Mrs. William Mooney and Terri Sampson.

The only thing wrong with this 9 to 1 affair was that the encounter was too brief.

ALL DAY THING... Group 2 of Johnson C. Smith's local Alumni Association, in early preparation for Homecoming '79 sponsored a fish fry party at Curt and Hattie Ardrey's home, 2011 Quentin Place, last Saturday, April 14.

Myra Maxwell, Willie Waddell, Fran Owens, Harold Winston, Duffie Hyatt, Julia Garvin, Charles Hodges, and Francis Debeunne along with Curt and Hattie played the major roles in this all day fun-filled event. They made sure that everybody was wine and dined to the max.

Many friends ate, drank, danced, played cards and involved themselves in titillating conversation while they thoroughly enjoyed themselves. Some of the many friends were Gerald Blakeney, Bill Johnson, Jr., Steve Edney, Gwen McCullough, Bonnie Phillips, Pat Moore, Elaine White, Tom Bradley, Lorraine Berry, Sandra Davis, Francis Sowell, Elsie Davis, Wayne McLurkin, William Boger, Elliot Jefferson, Freddy Scott, Joe Robinson, "Shakey," Mary Rivens, Kitt Massey, Gaby Liebeskind, Callie Alexander, Leroy Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Lloyd, Tom Brown and Ed Moore.

REUNION TIME... West Charlotte's graduating class of 1959 is making a final effort to find any members who want to be involved in the class' 20th reunion. All interested members should call Bill Johnson, Jr. at 376-5049 or Barbara Goines at 394-7930.

A HUNTING WE WILL GO... Easter is tailor made for children; new clothes, vacation from school, Easter baskets and Easter egg hunts.

The Extraordinaire's Social and Civic Club hosted their third annual Easter egg hunt last Saturday morning on the campus of Johnson C. Smith University.

Donna Dowdy and Paul Bailey were the big winners—Donna found the most eggs while Paul found the golden egg. Both youngsters won baskets for their efforts.

The Big Event of the Extraordinaire's is coming our way soon. For more information, contact any of the members.

TEA FUNCTION... The Blue Slipper Social Club of Charlotte will sponsor a Disco-Tea at the Elk's Home on Tuckaseegee Rd., Sunday evening, April 29. So put on your disco slippers and enjoy a super time with the Blue Slippers.

BIRTHDAY FUN... Little Deltwan Broome was very elated last Monday afternoon when he found out that the outdoor occurrence held at Park Road Park was in his honor.

Many of his friends and relatives were on hand to help the little gent celebrate his sixth birthday.

When checking out the occasion, he found out that his mother, Alfreda Broome, had prepared for and invited Carrie Broome, Roosevelt Broome, Edna Washington, Monroe Washington, Cassandra Harris, Dedra Harris, Karen Freeman, Antoine Washington, Lisa Washington, Osie Culp, Jewel Culp, Darryl Culp, Jerry Culp, Darion Washington, Rosetta Washington, Mary Culp, D'Armon Culp, Darius Culp, Dasrien Culp, Jackie Bell, Susie Bell, Cherie Bell, Beverly Culp, Antonia Culp, Raphael Culp, Deborah Robinson, Antonio Robinson, Carrie Washington, Andrea Culp, George Washington, Tina Gaston and Ronald Culp.

Until next time -- ROCK EASY!!!

Students Can

Sing Their Way

Across Europe?

Special to the Post
ROCK HILL—High school and college-age students can sing their way across Europe this summer through a program organized at Winthrop College.

Robert Edgerton, director of choral activities at Winthrop, is planning his second European concert tour in July for the Carolina Youth Chorale.

The chorale, which is open to North and South Carolina singers who have completed the 10th grade and college-age musicians, will visit Austria, Germany, Switzerland, Belgium, France and Holland for 15 days of sightseeing, cultural activities and concert performances under Edgerton's direction.

The group will leave Charlotte, N.C., July 5 enroute to Holland and return to Charlotte July 19. The trip will cost about $1,175 including round-trip air transportation, private motor coaches, English-speaking escorts, accommodations and most meals.

For more information, contact Edgerton at the School of Music, Winthrop College, Rock Hill, S. C. 29733 or call (803) 323-2255.
