An Open Letter"

"AN OPEN LETTER"
by J. M. Little
My dear friends,
In the life of God's servant,
one of the saddest facts he has to face is the rebellion of one who he thought was a brother or sister in Christ. For nearly three years now since we have been publishing the Gospel through this medium, all I have been doing is telling how God saved this hell-deserving sinner. And in so doing, I have drawn the line of DEMARCA-TION clearly so that you could know whether you are saved My simple testimony from these feeble clay lips that the Lord has been using has revealed many a false professor of a religious profession with-out Christ. The Lord would not have you or me believe a false profession. All I can do is tell and set forth what I know experimentally, as the blessed Holy Spirit taught me, before He revealed Christ to my heart under Holy Spirit Conviction (Jn. 16:7-11), and since He revealed Christ to my heart, as my Lord and Saviour (Matt. 16:17)

You have often known me to say that you cannot listen to God's man and the devil's man, too. That simply means that you cannot believe both are servants of the Lord when only one is. Many things the Lord reveals to His servant the servant may only just ponder in his heart. I have noticed over the years here that some who claimed to be. saved always talked on the holiness side, never telling how they were awakened to their lost condition under the revealing and convicting power of the Holy Spirit. I also noted, too, that some would strongly defend a certain false prophet. And as I continued to speak out of the abundance of what the Lord taught me, continuously the will of that individual was being crossed, and one day that soul heard something I said and turned critically and said, "You are not to judge, you are judging!
The Lord is going to do the judging!" That critical statement stunned me, but the rebellion had to come out, the Lord brought it out.

Let me say with all the tenderness of my heart, no soul can have their heart opened by the Holy Spirit and see their lost condition, and hen critically and bitterly occuse God's servant of judging. Once you are truly awakened to your lost condition, you know God's servant is declaring the truth! It never crosses your mind to lash out to him as judging. When I open my mouth and speak out of the abundance of what the Lord has taught me, the soul on a profession of religion without Christ does not see or understand what I'm talking about; therefore all he knows to do is to accuse me of judging. There are certain things all believers know and understand, but when you take the position that God's servant is judging you are telling me that you have never been taught of the Lord (Isa. 54:13). As I said, some are always talking on the holiness side, leaving out Holy Spirit Convic-

I'll also say further; any soul, now you get it, any soul who cannot hold up under my testimony is not saved. If you can rebel against the truth as it is in Christ, as I have evidently set forth for nearly three years through this medium, you are not saved! I will not compromise with you. As someone rightly stated, "You are only telling the truth, you are not judging." One soul wrote me a letter accusing me straight up and straight down of judging. And then turned around and said that she and I believed the same thing. What a tragedy!

The Apostle Peter said; "Make your calling and election sure." If you cannot hold up under my testimony, you are not saved. Right there you will accuse me of judging. Well, there are many wolves in sheep clothing. But listen, you cannot fool God's servant about your salvation. When the Lord won't let me settle down on a soul I know something is wrong. There is no way under the sun you can have Christ revealed to your heart and take the position that God's servant is judging. When I was under conviction for salvation, it never occurred to me to accuse God's servants of judging. I knew they were telling the truth! But I noticed along a period of time the soul would make statements that were not coming from having been taught of the Lord. There are just certain things that all believers understand.

My messages are as diffe-rent from a false prophet as night and day. You cannot uphold my message and that of a false prophet too. But the Lord reveals all false professors in time or eternity. My friends, how is it between you and the Lord? Do you know Christ? If you do, you are not going around accusing me of. judging. As the days come and go, I'm seeing many of the things my late pastor told us years ago. One thing in particular: "The greatest enemy of the Gospel is a soul on a religious profession with-out Christ." And get this; "The Lord's children follow Him, and the devil's children follow him." It's just that simple, you have to and will follow your master.

I praise the Lord for saving a sinner like me, and all I can do is tell you what the Lord has taught me. If you rise against the message, you are in rebellion against God. When you accuse me of judging, you are rebelling against the truth but you don't know it. Twenty years ago I didn't know these truths I am setting forth. You simply don't believe me, and are calling me a liar by accusing me of judging. God help you because I cannot. Awakened sinner, don't tarry, flee to Christ. Let nothing or no one hinder you from coming to Christ.

Never will I forget the time the Lord dealt with my heartin love and mercy, showing me my lost condition and the judgment I was under until He brought me to Christ. I praise the Lord for it. Only a few souls believe the Word of God. You can disagree with my personality, but you cannot disagree with the truth I am setting forth, the message is from the Lord, not me.

USDA Sets New Eligibility Guidelines For Food Program

Special to the Post

WASHINGTON-A 10.2 percent increase in the guidelines used to determine children's eligibility for free and reduced price meals and free milk, was announced today by Assistant Secretary of Agricul-ture Carol Tucker Foreman.

The new guidelines will apply to schools and child care institutions participating in the school lunch, school breakfast, child care food program and the special milk program.

"Each year we adjust the income eligibility guidelines to reflect changes in the cost of living," Foreman said. The new income guidelines, effective July 1, 1979, to June 30, 1980, reflect the change between the 1978 average of the Consumer Price Index and the index of March, 1979.

States are required by U.S. Department of Agriculture regulations to set eligibility for free meals and milk at 125

Peters Heads In New Direction

"I went up to talk with them," Peters said, "but we were more than $5,000 apart on salary, and so things just sort of broke down. They wanted to give me all this responsibility for producing the 6 p.m. and the 11 p.m. news, but for very little more money than I was already making." Several weeks later, on a day Peters des-cribes as "the worst in my career," he came home, announced to his family that he was a failure, and read a WLOS letter asking if he was interested in a job as news director for the station.

"I jumped straight up in the air. No one had asked me to be a news director before, and I was delighted that this man was considering me," Peters said. "I called him, we set an appointment, and about two weeks after the interview I got the job." Peters said he took the news director's slot at out $1,000 less than he had

"I've got some irons in the fire, and several of them are very hot," he said. "But all I'll say is I'm not going to let my wife and children miss a
