"Dorothy" Premieres

Wednesday Night

Singer-comedienne Dorothy Loudon, a Tony winner in Broadway's smash hit, "Annie," stars in "Dorothy," a summer comedy series in production for its premiere broadcast on Wednesday, August 8 at 8 p.m. on WBTV, Channel 3.

Miss Loudon will portray the lively music and drama teacher at a stuffy Eastern girls school. There, she finds herself much more in tune with her students than with the pompous headmaster, played by Russell Nype, the popular Broadway and musical star, who is a double Tony winner for "Call Me Madam" and "Goldilocks."

Also starring are Linda Manz, who starred in the Oscar-nominated film, "Days of Heaven," and Susan Brecht, Michele Greene and Elissa Leeds, all as students; and Kenneth Gilman and Priscilla Morill as teachers.

Gilman starred in "Loves Me, Loves Me Not" on the Network and Miss Morill has had recurring roles on "Family" and "The Mary Tyler Moore Show."

Miss Loudon, a recent Tony nominee for "Ballroom," won her first Tony for the musical "The Fig Leaves Are Falling." She starred on Broadway in "Noel Coward's Sweet Potato" and revivals of "The Women" and "Three Men on a Horse." She started on television on "The Garry Moore Show," and has appeared on many variety shows and specials, including "The 'Annie' Christmas Show."

Nype made his New York debut in "Regina." His other Broadway credits include "My Fair Lady," "The Girl in the Freudian Slip," "Call Me Madam" and "Hello, Dolly!" He has appeared frequently on television variety shows and tours widely at dinner and community theaters, most recently in "My Fair Lady" and "I Do! I Do!"

"One Day At A Time"

Ann unexpectedly finds herself in her most serious romantic involvement since her divorce, causing her seriously to question her most intimate feelings and values, in the first of a three-part episode on "One Day at a Time," to be rebroadcast Sunday, August 5 at 8:30 p.m. on WBTV, Channel 3.
