

McADOO RECEIVES ALUMNAE AWARD

Lola Ann McAdoo is well known in Bennett College circles for her outstanding work in alumnae affairs. She was recently honored for outstanding contribution to the college and to her profession by becoming the recipient of this year's highest alumnae award, the Susie W. Jones Plaque. A Greensboro native, she has served as president of the Greensboro Alumnae Chapter and treasurer of the National Alumnae Association. Lola who teaches in the Greensboro school system, is also very active in community affairs.

Conners Host

Party For

Californian

Anne Davidson Williams was the honored guest at a card party given by Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Conner of Charlotte on July 28 at their summer home on Lake Norman.

Among the party guests were Mrs. Conner's sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Holly of Hempstead, New York and Mrs. Mary Barnes.

A delicious assortment of hors d'oeuvres and beverages was served continuously. The evening was concluded with the presentation of prizes.

Mrs. Williams is a former Charlottean who now resides in Stockton, California. She is the reading consultant for the Stockton Unified School District.

Recently, Mrs. Williams was honored in Stockton at a Women's Recognition Day program at San Joaquin Delta College for outstanding volunteer community service. One of her favorite projects, of the community services in which she is involved, is serving as the coordinator of a reading tutorial program for disadvantaged students who are experiencing reading problems. This program exists under the auspices of the Stockton Chapter of Links, Inc. of which she is a member.

Twanna Taylor

Attends Youth

Seminar On Law

Twanna Taylor of Charlotte was among 140 high school students from throughout North Carolina who recently attended the Sixth Annual Youth Seminar on Law, Leadership and Government in Chapel Hill.

Twanna is the daughter of Mrs. Geraldine Taylor, and a student at Olympic High School in Charlotte.

The week-long seminar was organized to give young people opportunities to learn about government and how to develop their own leadership skills. Participants attended workshops, and panel discussions on justice, youth rights, news media, community organizing and government.

Students received certificates for their participation during a luncheon featuring an address by Speaker of the House Carl Stewart.

Guest lecturers during the seminar included Sara Hodgkins, Secretary of Cultural Resources; Howard Lee, Secretary of Natural Resources and Community Development; Attorney General Rufus Edmisten; and Gary Pearce, Press Secretary to the Governor.
