Top Post

Ben Boswell has been named manager of the Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action section of Wachovia Bank and Trust Company's Personnel Administration Department. He succeeds Kay S. Holt who has transferred to the General Loan Administration Department.

Boswell joined Wachovia in 1976 as a personnel officer and became an EEO specialist in 1977. He moved to Charlotte in 1978 as regional personnel officer for Wachovia's southern region and was elected assistant vice president at that time.

A native of Danville, Va., Boswell graduated cum laude from Williams College, Williamstown, Mass. Prior to joining Wachovia, he was a member of the faculty of Western Reserve Academy, Hudson, Ohio; assistant director of admissions, Williams College; and associate director of student affairs, A Better Chance, Inc., Boston Mass.

Wheelchair Games

The 1st Annual Charlotte Invitation Wheelchair games will be held in Charlotte on October 13, at 9 a.m. till 5 p.m. at the J. Mason Smith High School, 1600 Tyvola Road. The public is invited - events start at 9 a.m. and will continue through the day. There will be contestants from all over the South Eastern United States and you will be able to see the performances of some of the leading wheelchair athletes in the country.

TRICHOLOGY CORNER

Mr. Charles R.B.

Question:
My beautician does not tell me anything about caring for my hair. Why?

Answer:
There is a tendency for customers to insult the beautician's intelligence doing their own hair at home. The only thing that will happen is that the customer will only damage their own hair and blame the Beautician. Only a trained and experienced professional can diagnose and treat hair.
