

Dr. Bertha Maxwell
...Convention speaker

JCSU Seniors

Will Hear

Dr. Maxwell

Valerie Lynch
Post Staff Writer

Dr. Bertha Maxwell, a JCSU graduate, will be guest speaker at a senior class convocation 10 a.m. Tuesday, October 23 in the University Church on the JCSU campus.

The former Vice-President for Administrative Affairs and Planning at JCSU will speak on the theme: "Where Do We Go From Here."

Presently Dr. Maxwell is professor of Afro-American and African Studies and Director of the Afro-American and African Studies at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte.

She has served on numerous panels and boards on a local and national level. Her community service work includes WBT Black Advisory Board, Mental Health Center Advisory Board, Charlotte Arts and Science Board and Co-Developer-Afro American Cultural and Service Center. She has also served as principal of several Mecklenburg County Schools.

Dr. Maxwell received her Masters degree in Education from UNC Greensboro and a Ph.D. in Curriculum Development, Educational Administration from Union Graduate School in Yellow Springs, Ohio.

All students, faculty, staff and community are invited to attend.

Irwin School

Plans Show

And Sell

Show and Sell, Irwin School's annual Halloween extravaganza, will take place this year on Saturday, October 27, from 4 to 8 p.m. The event is sponsored by Irwin's PTSA and is their major annual fund-raiser.

As in past years, a big feature of Show and Sell will be the auction, from 5 to 7 p.m., with items such as appliances, works of art, personal services, and resort vacations going for a fraction of their value. This year's auctioneers will include city councilman Harvey Gantt, elections supervisor Bill Culp, and salesman/playground designer Charles Caldwell, plus a special mystery guest.
