

Voices Of Sinai Will Present Their Annual Concert Here Sunday

By Teresa Burns
Post Staff Writer

A concert of anthems, hymns, spirituals and the latest in gospel music will be presented by the Voices of Sinai at the Greater Mount Sinai Baptist Church, 1243 West Boulevard, Sunday, November 18, at 4 p.m.

This concert will be the 10th annual concert given by the choir. Mrs. N. E. Kerry is minister of music and Michael D. Cooper will accompany the choir on the organ.

Special guest for the event will be soloist, Mrs. Georgia B. Guest of Shelby, N. C. She is a nationally-known recording artist and a soloist for the General Baptist State Convention of N. C. This performer's beautiful voice is in constant demand across America. According to Rev. Norman E. Kerry, pastor of Mount Sinai, "This without a doubt will be one of our best concerts ever."

The public is cordially invited to come out and share with Mount Sinai in an evening of delightful music.

NEW ZION BAPTIST

"Christ the Challenge to a Desperate World" will be the theme of New Zion Baptist Church Missionary Circle's 31st Anniversary celebration Sunday, November 18, at 2:30 p.m.

This distinguished guest speaker will be Mrs. Georgia M. Turner, President of the Woman's Baptist Home and Foreign Missionary Convention of North Carolina. Turner is also active in community organizations. She is a member of Robeson County Library Board of Trustees, Shaw Divinity School Board of Trustees, NEA, NCEA and ACT, Order of Eastern Star and attends First Baptist Church.

Turner graduated from Shaw University and studied at Virginia State College and Pembroke State University. She is married to Dr. E. B. Turner and they have two daughters.

New Zion Baptist Church is located at 117 Judson Avenue. The public is warmly invited to attend the anniversary celebration.

FIRST MOUNT ZION

Hear the Gospel songs of First Mount Zion's Musical Choir, Sunday, November 18 at 6 p.m. The concert will be held at the church (1515 Remount Rd.).

Thomas Sowell is president of the choir. The organists-pianists will be Rev. James Davis and Wayne Robinson. This promises to be a delightful musical evening and the public is invited.

A "Talent and Fashion Show" will be sponsored by the Cradle Roll-Nursery Department of Silver Mount Baptist Church Sunday, November 18 at 6 p.m.

You will enjoy various high fashions and a surprise fashion feature modeled by participants of all ages. Exciting church talent will be included as well as a special guest.

Silver Mount Baptist is located in Pineville, N. C. The "Talent and Fashion Show" is free and the public is cordially invited.

On Wednesday, November 21 at 7:30 o'clock, Silver Mount Baptist Church will hold its "Annual Pre-Thanksgiving Service." The distinguished Dr. L. D. Parker, pastor of St. Luke Baptist Church, will be the guest speaker.

Music for this special occasion will be performed by St. Luke's choirs, Silver Mount's 200 voice concert choir, and choirs from other churches. There will be a free turkey drawing. Plans have also been made to give special food boxes to needy families.

A repass, prepared by the Missions Department will be served following the service.

Rev. William Lee Jr. and the congregation of Silver Mount invite the public to attend.

CATAWBA PRESBYTERY
Indeed the unity of Presbyterians exists as 33 of their churches from 10 local counties congregated to help raise money for both local and regional special missions.

According to Rev. Eugene Randall the 33 churches unification is called The Catawba Presbytery. They will hold a celebration, at 5 p.m. Sunday, November 18 at C. N. Jenkins United Presbyterian Church on Statesville Avenue. The celebration, sponsored by the Major Missions Committee, will help raise money for day care centers, tutoring programs and projects for the elderly and teenagers.

The guest speaker will be Ms. Motlalepula Chabaku, a Mission Interpreter with the Synod of the Piedmont, United Presbyterian Church, USA. There is no admission and the public is invited.

MOUNT CARMEL
Vice President of Greyhound Corporation, Joe Black will speak at Mount Carmel Baptist Church's Annual Men's Day Observance, 11 a.m. Sunday, November 18.

Black is renown for producing scholarship programs for minority students at predominantly Black Colleges; for the encouragement of employing individuals without high school educations or with jail records; utilizing Black advertising; and recommending that minorities be employed in progressive positions.

In addition Black has a syndicated commentary entitled "By The Way," which can be heard on Charlotte's WGIV Radio Station or read in the Charlotte Post.

The church will sponsor an informal reception Saturday night, November 17 at 7:30 p.m. in the church fellowship hall. The public is invited to hear the eminent Joe Black.

CORINTHIAN MISSIONARY
Take note. The Annual Candle Tea of the Corinthian Missionary Baptist Church will have the Tea at the Church at 9147 Trinity Rd. November 18 from 4 until 6 p.m.

The tea was originally set to be held at the Greenville Center. The speaker will be Joseph O. Brono, a businessman from Gastonia. Plans have also been set for visiting choirs to perform.

Following the services the members of Corinthian Missionary Baptist Church will present their 12 tables, each named after a month, and filled with home-cooked food.

The public is cordially invited by Corinthian's congregation and pastor Dr. J. G. Whitfield.

SHILOH INSTITUTIONAL
This is the 10th Anniversary for the J. A. Gospel Choir of the Shiloh Institutional Baptist Church. They will observe their anniversary Sunday, November 18 at 4 p.m. with special guest Raymond L. Couthen and the Voices of Faith Ensemble from Winston-Salem.

About 28 dedicated young people serving the Lord make up the ensemble. They have traveled to different conventions around the world and have been enjoyed by many.

Their release on Rev. Issac Douglas album proved to be a big success and their 45 has been a favorite on Randy's Record Mart and many other places.

Shiloh Institutional Baptist Church is located at 208 S. Bruns Avenue. The Rev. Tommy G. Davis and the congregation invite the public to enjoy the delightful music of the Voices of Faith.

ANTIOCH BAPTIST
Antioch Baptist Church's Nurses Club will have a special worship program Sunday, November 18 at 6:30 p.m.

The program's purpose is to raise scholarship money for members entering nursing or medical school. Rev. Thomas Clifton, a minister of the church, will deliver the sermon at this special fund raising event.

Also Sunday, November 18 at 3 p.m. Rev. Preston Pendergrass and ushers of Antioch Baptist Church will worship with St. Mark Baptist Church located on Grandin Road.

Rev. Pendergrass will deliver the sermon entitled "Protected for the Job" at this annual usher program.

The public is extended an invitation to both events.

UNIVERSITY CHURCH
Annual Fall Revival services will continue at Johnson C. Smith University for the continuation of the week at the University Church on the campus.

Rev. Robert (Bob) Walton of St. Paul Presbyterian Church is scheduled to speak at 7:30 p.m. Thursday November 15. Friday, November 16 at 7:30 o'clock, services will be conducted by Rev. Robyn Gool of Faith CME Church.

The public is invited to attend this Student Christian Association sponsored event.

THANKSGIVING SERVICES
There will be three community churches celebrating Thanksgiving together November 22, starting at 10 a.m.

Memorial United Presbyterian, Mount Carmel Baptist and Gethsemane AME Zion will hold their annual Thanksgiving Service at Memorial United Presbyterian at 2600 Beatties Ford Road.

Rev. George E. Battle, pastor of Gethsemane AME Zion, will deliver the Thanksgiving sermon. Choirs will sing joyous songs prepared especially for the occasion.

The public is warmly invited to attend this special Thanksgiving Service.
