

TV Week

Friday November 23-Thursday November 29

Features

WBTB Sets

"A Family

Thanksgiving"

"A WBTB Family Thanksgiving" will begin early on November 22nd and continue throughout the day on WBTB, Channel 3.

"This Morning" at 6:15 am will find Dick Taylor, C. J. Underwood, Jim Berry and Jim Patterson helping Barbara Stutts prepare the traditional turkey and trimmings and looking forward to the Thanksgiving Day Parades from New York, Philadelphia, Toronto, Detroit and Hawaii, which begin at 9 am and continue til NFL Football time at noon when Chicago battles Detroit.

At 3:30 pm, Mike McKay and Lynne Bradley host the 33rd Carolinas' Carrousel Parade, with the famous bandleader Charlie Spivak as Grand Marshal. Gorgeous beauty queens, stirring marching bands and magnificent float will be featured, and on one of those floats will be some of WBTB's personalities including Yvette Alston, C. J. Underwood, Lester Strong, Clara Lowry, Lou Heckler and Ty Boyd.

Following the parade at 5:30 pm, the WBTB gang will get together for fun and feasting, with Clyde McLean as host. While waiting to devour the by-now luscious turkey, the group hears about a Thanksgiving in 1886 from 97-year-old Anna Guignard, and about Indian Thanksgivings from Cherokee Lloyd Owl. They'll also be entertained by the outstanding local singer Daryl Rice who'll musically "Bless This House," and the Unity Singers who'll blend their voices for "We Gather Together."

Myers Park Thesipans

To Present Play

The Myers Park Thesipans will present Paul Zindel's "The Effect of Gamma Rays on Man-in-the-moon Marigolds" Nov. 29, 30 and Dec. 1.

Located in Myers Park Studio Theatre, 2400 Colony Road, the drama will begin at 8 p.m. Tickets are $2 at the door.

VOICES OF LOVE — Two sharply contrasting productions of a work by Jean Cocteau will be presented back to back on "Great Performances," Wednesday, Nov. 28, on PBS. "The Human Voice" features Liv Ullmann (above) in a one-character theater piece as she has a last desperate conversation with her former lover. In "La Voix Humaine," Karan Armstrong stars in an avant-garde operatic film version of the work.