

26 Participate In Cotillion Ball

One of the most beneficial occasions of the year is the annual Cotillion Ball sponsored by the Charlotte Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. This year marks the 16th year of the ball. It will be held 9 p.m., Saturday, March 29 at the Park Center, 310 Kings Drive.

Twenty-six young ladies are participating in the cotillion this year - one of the largest number ever. The ladies are involved to discover their own creative potentials. In the process they are also contributing to outstanding sources. Proceeds from the cotillion will go to scholarships, United Negro College Fund, and Legal Defense.

As in previous issues, the Post presents five more stunning cotillion participants. They are Monica Morrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Morrison, Sr. of 1527 Capps Hill Mine Rd. Ms. Morrison attends West Charlotte; Pam Pate, a North Mecklenburg student is also a participant. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carwell Pate of 10107 Clawmore Pl.; Marcia Reeder, of 3138 Dawnshire Ave., is the daughter of Mrs. Lucy Lowery Reeder and the late Marcus Thomas Reeder. Ms. Reeder is a West Charlotte senior; Cheryl Roberson, an East Mecklenburg student, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isiah Roberson of 906 Bobby Lane; and Felicia Rouse of 2952 Dogwood Ave., attends West Charlotte. Ms. Rouse is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Abernathy.

Area Students Among Finalists

Special To The Post
GREENSBORO-Finalists in the competitive scholarships program at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro have been selected and invited to visit the campus for interviews on March 23-24.

Out of 320 applicants, the competition has now been narrowed to 76 invited finalists. These students were chosen by the UNC-G Competitive Scholarships Committee.

Six students from Charlotte and one from Pineville were selected. They are:

Charlotte--Mary Catherine Berrier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard N. Berrier of 5024 Hoover Dr. and a student at North Mecklenburg High School; Phyllis Ann Cameron, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neill W. Cameron of 3532 Windsor Dr., and Janet Talley, daughter of Mrs. Ilse Talley of 1505 Waverly Dr., both students at Myers Park High School; Esther Laurie Glenn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence E. Glenn of 1626 Longfellow St. and a student at Garinger High School; Jean Carroll Hightower, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Hightower of 6805 Constitution Lane and a student at South Mecklenburg High School; and Mark David Ledwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin J. Ledwell of 2355 Morton St. and a student at Harding High School.

Pineville--Currie Randolph Leggoe, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Leggoe of 11806 Mirror Lake Dr., Pineville and a student at South Mecklenburg High School.

The competitive scholarships program at UNC-G includes the Katharine Smith Reynolds Scholarships, the Alumni Scholarships, the Jefferson Standard Scholarship, and the James S. and Frances C. Ferguson Scholarship. The four programs are open to both male and female incoming freshmen. Altogether, it is anticipated that approximately 35 scholarships in the four programs will be awarded to incoming freshmen for the 1980-81 academic year.

MCM Writes

$1 Million

Policy

The largest single policy ever underwritten by North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company has been taken out on the life of a Winston-Salem woman.

The $1.3 million policy was purchased by Mutter Evans, 26, owner of a Winston-Salem radio station. She becomes NCM's only million dollar policyholder. The historic life insurance purchase was engineered by C. P. Booker, manager of NCM's Winston-Salem district office.

Miss Evans purchased WAAA, Winston-Salem's only radio station with black-oriented programming, last October. A Williamston native, she joined the station while still a student at Wake Forest University in 1974.

She served the station in various capacities, including director of the News and Public Affairs department, sales representative, executive vice president and general manager, prior to becoming owner.

TRICHOLOGY CORNER

Mr. Charles R. B.

QUESTION: I like to use colognes but they make me sneeze. Why?

ANSWER: It is part psychological and part real. People who have allergies will be afraid of any scent they feel will be strong. However, most cheap grade perfumes or colognes cannot afford to use highly refined ingredients; they will be too expensive to make. That is the difference between your cheap one and your more expensive ones. Mr. Charles has bought out 3 new fragrances for people like you. Ruby II-Lust-OOO-EEE-DAM. They may be tested free of charge on our cosmetic counter.
