The Outspoken CRAIG WILSON

From Hollywood

One of the happiest fellas in town is our songwriting and Tom DePiro who penned the hit tune on that hot item, "Is It Still Warm," by Denita James and Damion James. Denita and Damion are currently on the Hodges, Jones and Smith tour of Europe and our London spy is reported to report that the couple are closer than white on rice and are considering making the situation legal. Wonder what Denita will do with that African prince who has been sitting on her door step for the last two years?

Ernestine McClendon wasn't kidding when she announced that she was closing her New York and Hollywood theatrical agencies. Ernestine tells me that she is spending all of her time to film producing and has her first script, Heartbreak at Midnight, almost ready for the cameras.

Music man, Gil Scott-Heron and his actress wife, Della Sykes, are a most happy pair when telling folks about the birth of their baby daughter, Gia, who weighed 11.5 pounds. Friends are kidding Dad about his first child, the pretty young girl, a basketball player.

SYLVESTER DEE DEE BRIDGEWATER GIL SCOTT-HERON

rumor has it that the world's number one female singer, Donna Summer, is asking her record company for a million dollar advance on any new album.

Disco king Sylvester called us from New York to give us the story about his recent arrest on alleged grand larceny charges in the Big Apple. It seems there is a Sylvester who is like in the big town that is making a career out of cashing bad checks at coin dealers whenever the singer is in New York. A very surprised Sylvester was arrested by one of New York's finest as he left his elegant Plaza Hotel suite on his way to Cheryl Lynn's birthday party. He was detained overnight at the 54th Street station where the error could be corrected. The look alike resembles the name Michael Henson and has been called Sylvester and his manager, Nancy Pitts, on the phone during their lives between obscene phrases.

On the brighter side this week DeeDee Bridgewater is in town, according to our spies, for a few days finishing her stint in the Broadway musical, 1940's. She was now and rushed into the waiting arms of her husband, producer Gil Moses. It appears that the very happy couple are on their way to ending that speculation that found DeeDee living on the East Side of the Gil lived in the San Fernando Valley.

One of the best kept secrets in town is the name of that young girl who runs around town crashing parties and causing a ruse that she is the daughter of Motown Record founder, Berry Gordy. She crashed Logan's hoedown for Harold Melvin and the Bluebelles followed Bluenote member David Ebo from the hotel. Maybe David knows who she is now?
