

Denver To Appear In WBTB Special Sunday

John Denver, the versatile and immensely popular singer and actor, adds another dimension to his remarkable career when he recreates the most fabulous feats in aviation history in "The Higher We Fly," a special airing Sunday, June 15 at 7 p.m. on Channel Nine.

Denver, a devout aviation buff, overcame his early fear of flying when his father, a World War II Air Force pilot, persisted in teaching him to fly a biplane. "Now," his father quips, "you can't keep him out of a plane."

Denver shares this love of flying by taking us on a journey through aviation history. He begins with a breathtaking flight over the Rocky Mountains in man's first air vehicle, a hot air balloon. After bouncing off the ground in a replica of the Kitty Hawk Flyer and barnstorming craggy mountain peaks, Denver is propelled into the jet age in an F-15 fighter jet. He also experiences a voyage into outer space in a simulated flight in the space shuttle. Finally, he peers into infinity for an imaginative glimpse at what creatures might exist on other planets.

Denver sings "The Higher We Fly," which is based on a poem by John Gillespie, a fighter pilot who died shortly after he wrote the poem.

"Bad News Bears"

When Regi, Tanner and Engelberg get on Ogilvie's "case," the little brains of the Bears lay a major "guilt trip" on the trio that causes them to run away from home, on "The Bad News Bears," Saturday, June 14 at 8 p.m. on WBTB, Channel 3.

Ogilvie's "mind-bender" has the boys convinced that they are responsible for causing a valley-wide power blackout, and the only way to stay out of jail is to make a run for it. The "run" takes them on an adventure with a tough motorcycle gang, until Coach Buttermaker catches up with them and "rumbles" with the wild bunch.

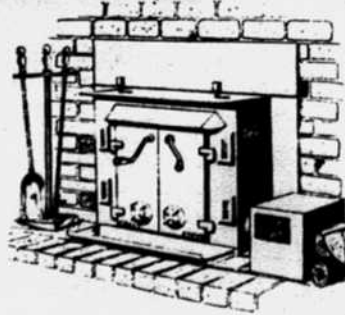

"Dallas"

J.R. is caught from all sides when a typhoon delays the oil drilling in Asia as his bank loan becomes due, then Bobby discovers that J.R. has mortgaged Southfork ranch and he is forced to tell Jock and Ellie that they may lose everything, on "Dallas," to be rebroadcast Friday, June 13 at 10 p.m. on WBTB, Channel 3.

J.R. believes that once Cliff Barnes resigns his post as head of the Office of Land Management, the banks will extend their loan deadline, but again he's mistaken. When the efforts of all the Ewing men seem to have failed, Ellie makes a supreme sacrifice in an effort to save Southfork.
