

East Stonewall's Second Oratorical Contest Will Be Held Sunday

Everywhere you turn communication seems to be a problem. But not so at East Stonewall A.M.E. Zion Church. "Some people may think that aratory between young people is a dying art," explains Rena Blake, member of the Pastor's Aid Board at East Stonewall, "But that's not so."

And to prove it Ms. Blake has coordinated a second annual Oratorical Contest which will be held Sunday, September 14, at 3 p.m. Last year's winner was Roderick Ross.

This year Ross will compete to keep his title of "Your Oratorist," against his sister Raini Ross, Ricky Beatty, Linda Shropshire, Keith Chisholm and Vivian Cherry. First, second and third place prizes will be given to winners.

Other participants in the program include Antonette Murphy, Courtney McCoy, Reginaid Murphy, Arthur and Jessie Walls, Shaffron Smith, Delcena Simpson, and guest soloist Delores Miller. The Angelic and Gospel Choirs of East Stonewall will also perform.

This Oratorical Contest, sponsored by the Pastor's Aid Board, is a fund raising adventure to help meet the needs of the pastor, Rev. James E. McCoy. This event also gives the youth of the church a sense of pride, confidence and faith, according to Ms. Blake.

The church members of East Stonewall, located at 1729 Griens Grove Rd., cordially invite the public to attend.

Also the Men's Chorus from Mt. Olive Presbyterian Church will perform in concert at East Stonewall Sunday, September 14, at 6 p.m. This program is sponsored by Stewardess Board No. 1. Everyone is invited.

Rev. James E. McCoy will be in Revival this week with the White Rock A.M.E. Zion Church in Granite Quarry, N.C.

And the Gospel Choir of the church will celebrate its 6th anniversary Sunday, September 14, at 3 p.m. Visiting choirs from surrounding areas will participate in this musical program.

PRINCE OF PEACE
A special time has arrived for the Prince of Peace Lutheran Church. Four distinct events are occurring or will occur and one of these is a permanent gesture Christians strive to maintain.

On September 14 at 11 a.m. Rev. Bryant E. Clancy Jr., pastor and senior Vice President of the Southeastern District will deliver the sermon. At 3 p.m. Rev. Richard T. Hinz, President of the Southeastern District will preach. Also the choir of Ascension Lutheran Church, the St. Peter's Youth and Young Adult choirs and a violin selection will provide the musical feast. All of this is in store as the church celebrates its sixteenth anniversary.

But there is more - the realization that the church is fully self-financing, and who was instrumental in making this possible. Rev. Clancy explains: "While the Lord has blessed the congregation with land, a comfortable building and a talented membership, members emphasize that we have been blessed with each other, for stretching ourselves in God. Members believe their sacrifices for this day, their free and willing use of their talents and skills and the claiming responsibility for unassumed tasks to be the work of God in our midst."

First Mayfield's revival has been scheduled to begin September 21 and end September 28.

The 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. services will be open to the public. And as the church assures, "Everyone is wanted, Everyone is invited, Everyone is welcomed."

NEW EMMANUEL
The 36th Annual Pastor's Anniversary at New Emmanuel Congregational United Church of Christ, 3546 Beatties Ford Rd., will be celebrated Sunday, September 21 at 3 p.m. Rev. Nimrod C. Calhoun has served faithfully as a dedicated servant to God.

Guest speaker will be Rev. Paul Drummond, pastor of St. Paul's Baptist Church. The church's musical choir will perform.

Officers of the church include Ester Queen Thompson, president of Pastor's Aid, Lillie Ferguson, Clerk of the church, Alice Cowan, Treasurer of Pastor's Aid and Dan Caldwell and Cleveland Welch, Deacons. Rev. Dr. Nimrod C. Calhoun and the congregation cordially invite the public to attend.

FIRST MAYFIELD
September 14-19 Rev. Jeremiah, pastor of First Mayfield Memorial Baptist Church, will be the Revivalist at Salem Baptist Church.

First Mayfield's revival has been scheduled to begin September 21 and end September 28.

Annual Men's Day will be observed at Greater Mt. Sinai Baptist Church, 1243 West Blvd. Sunday, September 14, during the 11 a.m. service.

Soul Saving Revival to begin at 7:30 p.m. Sunday night, will be the Rev. C.B.T. Smith from Dallas, Texas.

Rev. Smith, a native of Texas is a graduate of Phyllis Wheatley High School in San Antonio, Texas. He holds a B.A. degree from Bishop College in Dallas, and attended Southwestern Seminary in Ft. Worth.

France, Greece, Israel, Italy and the Holy Land are just a few places Rev. Smith has toured. Presently he is pastor of the Golden Gate Baptist Church. He has pastored this church for 27 years. He is a great gospel preacher and singer. You won't regret taking the time out to attend these services conducted by Rev. Smith.

SALEM BAPTIST
Salem Baptist Church, 5318 Church Rd., begins their fall revival Sunday, September 14, at 7 p.m. Rev. LeMar Foster, pastor of Second Calvary Baptist Church will be the opening speaker.

Beginning Monday, September 15, and throughout the week, at 7:30 p.m. Rev. Jeremiah Robinson, pastor of the First Mayfield Memorial Baptist Church will be the evangelist.

The public is invited to attend these inspirational services. Rev. G. Davis is the associate pastor of Salem Baptist Church.

BETHLEHEM CENTER
Services will be conducted by Rev. Bobby Morgan at Bethlehem Center Sunday, September 21, at 4 p.m. to raise money for a new half-way house.

According to Rev. Morgan the old half-way house has been closed and donations will be taken at the service to insure a home for men getting out of prison. "This house will aid men getting out of prison with no families and no where to go," Rev. Morgan stated.

Rev. Morgan is now incarcerated at Camp Green. There, he became a minister three years ago and is now the camp minister. He is allowed to preach at various functions; and is released for work duty five days a week; and is allowed to go home each weekend. His scheduled release from Camp Green will be within the next two-three weeks.

The topic for this service will be "What Is Your Calling?" Rev. Morgan has invited several choirs including the Carolinas.

The public is invited to come out to Bethlehem Center, located at 2705 Baltimore Ave. The half-way house is a project of Rev. Billy Morgan's in conjunction with his advisor Rev. Joseph Baucom, pastor of Long Grove Christian Advent Church in Monroe.

BAPTIST ASSOCIATION
The Young Adult Department of the Mecklenburg

General Baptist Association will hold a Mock Wedding Saturday, September 13, at 4 p.m. at the Greenville Center. Expect the cuteness of this wedding to astound you.

Everyone is invited to enjoy this fabulously planned event. Alphonso Chisholm is president of the Young Adult Department.

S. TRYON PRESBYTERIAN

An Attic Sale, Bake Sale and Fish Fry will be held at South Tryon Presbyterian Church Saturday, September 20, from 9-6 p.m. There will be something for everyone - whether you want to decorate your home or fulfill your hunger pangs.

Sponsored by the Beautification Club and the men of the church, all proceeds from the sales will be used for the remodeling of the church. South Tryon Presbyterian Church is located at 2516 South Tryon St.

LOGAN'S CHAPEL

Fashions galore are in store at Logan's Chapel CME Methodist Church Fashion Show Sunday, September 14, at 6 p.m. Sponsored by the Youth Department of the church, models will show off outfits from Images, Mr. G's and Simon's Formal Wear.

There will be 30 models, some member of Logan's Chapel and some not. They will be turning, and displaying the latest fashions in the church fellowship hall.

Rev. O. L. Porter is the pastor of Logan's Chapel CME Methodist Church, which is located at 9505 Parkton Rd.

GREATER BETHEL
The Sarah Allen Missionary Society of Greater Bethel A.M.E. Church, 201 Grandin Rd., will sponsor a September Health Fair September 20 from 10 a.m.-4 p.m.

This group advocates that it is better to know now than later and "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure."

Free services provided by the missionary society include blood pressure, sickle cell, diabetic, dental, speech and hearing, T.B. and hemoglobin screening.

Children from age two months to six years will be given free complete physical examinations also. There will be a nutritional display and a family planning display as well.

Immunizations will be given but you must have a present record of any past immunizations to be eligible.

There will also be short conferences about Social Security, the Food Stamp Program, Medicare, Medicaid, a CPR demonstration, and a self-defense demonstration.

The public is invited to take advantage of these free services. Refreshments will also be served. Rev. Frank Reid is pastor of Greater Bethel A.M.E.

MOUNT MORIAH
Greater Mount Moriah, located at 747 W. Trade St., will celebrate the Seventh Anniversary of their pastor Elder Thomas W. Samuels 4 p.m. Sunday, September 14, at the church.

ST. MICHAEL
The Annual Picnic and Homecoming of St. Michael and All Angels Episcopal Church will be held Sunday, September 14, at Morrow Mountain State Park, located near Albemarle.

CATHEY MEMORIAL
What is it about the music of gospel and hymns that rocks the church aura? One guess would probably be the faith in which the words are sung and the beliefs that there is a God, a Trinity and a Heaven.

While the Senior Choir of Cathey Memorial A.M.E. Zion Church celebrates their 10th Anniversary with a musical program Sunday, September 14, expect not only your body, but your soul to be enhanced by familiar and new selections - all delivered from the heart.

The church, located at 624 Chicago Ave., is pastored by Rev. Price.
