

Morgan-Lyles Exchange

Wedding Vows October 25

Yvonne Morgan and Lee Grant Lyles exchanged wedding vows in a ceremony at Gethsemane Baptist Church on Saturday, October 25, at 3 p.m., officiated by Rev. C. E. Dewberry.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Morgan of 1016 Grove St. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. William Alexander of 728 Dedmon Street.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin gown embellished with lace trim. She carried a bouquet of daisies and carnations.

Lynette Morgan served as the maid of honor and Alice Morgan as the matron of honor. They were attired in green gowns with matching jackets and carried yellow, green and white carnations.

Bridesmaids Sharon Parker, Sharon Audrey, Johnnie May Erwin and Mattie Morgan, wore yellow gowns and carried yellow mums.

Willie Jones was the best man. Ushers were Robert Morgan, Richard Morgan, Sherlock Morgan, Rayford Morgan and Sandy Morgan.

Other attendants consisted of Deverlyn Morgan as the flower girl and Tavares Parker as the ring bearer. Judy Dewberry provided organ music.

The bride is a graduate of Harding High School and presently attends Central Piedmont Community College where she is studying accounting. She is also employed as a bookkeeper for K-Mart.

A West Charlotte High School graduate, the bridegroom is a warehouse factory representative for Parr Davis company.

After the ceremony and reception in the Church Hall, the bride's parents held another reception at their home. Fifty guests attended including one from Atlanta.

The couple will make their home in Charlotte.

Ramona Brown Is WC Sophomore Princess

By Teresa Burns
Post Staff Writer

Envision a petite elegant brown princess with the personality to make one smile and you've described Ramona Brown. She was recently elected Sophomore Princess at West Charlotte Senior High by student ballot.

Each 10th grade home-room nominated three names. These names were then placed on a sheet for all 10th graders to make a selection from. Ms. Brown received the highest number of votes, thus becoming Sophomore Princess.

She is also the head cheerleader, a member of the Wrecking Crew which sets up scenes for drama productions at West Charlotte, and a member of Junior Achievers Explorers.

As a member of the Girl Scouts, NAACP and the Student Council, Ms. Brown is kept busy with her various activities.

Her hobbies include cheerleading and dancing.

...Head cheerleader

Presently she is a student at Miss Donna's School of Dance with ballet, tap and jazz as her specialties.

Last year as a ninth grader Ms. Brown attended Coulwood Junior High School. There she was inducted into the Honor Society, elected Homecoming Queen, held the position of head cheerleader and participated in Project Aries. She is a member of Walls Memorial AME Zion Church.

Mr. and Mrs. James

Brown are the parents of Ms. Brown and she has one sister, Reba who is in the fourth grade.

Ms. Brown has big plans: "I would like to attend Duke University and go into medicine. My ambition is to become a surgeon." Whatever plans Ms. Brown undertakes will be seen through. For she possesses that one quality that makes a true princess -- inner beauty.
