

Spirit Square Tickets Go On Sale For Individual Events

Tickets to individual events at Spirit Square's NCNB Performance Place go on sale this week as the 1981 Winter-Spring Season approaches.

The exciting line up of national and international talent in music drama and dance serves as your "Passport to New Adventures in Entertainment." You don't have to leave Charlotte at all to get a taste of what the world of entertainment has to offer.

To learn all the details of the 45 performances scheduled in cozy NCNB Performance Place from now until June and to reserve your seats for the events you don't want to miss, call the Spirit Square Box Office at 704-376-8883.

Herbie Mann, the "world's leading jazz flutist according to DOWNBEAT Magazine will open this exciting new season on Jan. 16 and 17 with performances at 8:15 p.m.

NCNB Performance Place opened in April of 1980. In the short preview season that followed and this past fall 1980 season many of the performances were complete sell outs. To make sure that you do not miss the marvelous talent of Vincent Price or the Broadway charm of Melba Moore call for your tickets today.

Make sure that you see the "stars" of Spirit Square in the coming months - Juilliard String Quartet, Tashi (a quintet of strings and clarinet), Peter Serkin, The Romeros, The Chamber Orchestra of Nice, The Preservation Hall Jazz Band, A Midsummer Night's Dream, Home, The World of Sholom Aleichem, Jacques Brel is Alive and Well, Dimitri, Charlie Byrd, Tag Mahal, Doc Watson,

J.R. Delighted

With Future

Kissin' Kin

J.R.'s attention to Lucy's future sister-in-law is almost enough to divert his intention of getting Bobby's job as head of Ewing Oil, but he is quick to capitalize on his brother's rash actions, on the first part of a two-part episode, on "Dallas," Friday, January 16, at 10 p.m. on WBTV, Channel 3. (Part Two will be broadcast Friday, January 23.)

Mitch's sister and mother arrive for the upcoming wedding and J.R. takes an immediate interest in the new arrivals, which worries Sue Ellen. Bobby finds himself in a tough position after he enters into an oil drilling agreement which will put the company back on good terms with the cartel, even though he knows that Jock has already invested its capital in land development. J.R. delights in the bind in which his brother has placed the company and investigates a scheme of his own to make Bobby look bad in their father's eyes.

Sheridan Broadcasting Network

To address the whole mind, not just a piece of it.

Mention Black radio and most advertising people immediately think music.

Sure, Black consumers listen to radio's music. But not as attentively as they listen to news programs that focus on the issues and events that affect their lives. That's because today's Black consumer is better educated. More sophisticated. Earning more money. And very concerned about issues and events that affect them.

That's why WPEG has joined forces with Sheridan Broadcasting Network, the perfect vehicle to expand our already popular and successful musical format.

Our audience listens. Intently and intelligently ... with their whole mind, not just a piece of it.

SHERIDAN BROADCASTING NETWORK (SBN) ... BIGGER, BETTER AND 100 PERCENT BLACK-OWNED. And, therefore, much more responsive to the needs and aspirations of Black consumers.
