

Romaine Worth Opens Second Beauty Parlor

Romaine Worth has opened her second beauty parlor and has named it Sunshine Beauty Salon. The grand opening was held March 8. This new salon is located at 2523 North Graham St.

Rev. Paul Drummond accompanied by his wife, and daughter, performed the opening ceremony, gave the scripture and prayer, and cut the ribbon.

"The theme," according to Mrs. Worth, "was God Supplies All Your Needs."

A selection was performed by Naomi Worth. Guest speaker was the Cosmetologist instructor at West Charlotte Senior High, Lilliesteen Harris. Mrs. Harris remarked that Mrs. Worth's success was no surprise to her for she knew Mrs. Worth possessed great potential.

Mrs. Worth now owns two beauty parlors - Romaine's Beauty Rama, located at 1404 Beatties Ford Rd., which opened September 27, 1971 and now Sunshine Beauty Salon.

Sunshine's grand opening also featured brief remarks from Carolyn Smith, assistant manager of Beauty Rama and Christine Chisholm, assistant manager of Sunshine Beauty Salon.

Staff members were also recognized by Mrs. Worth: Eliza Steel, manager of Beauty Rama; operators-Phyllis Sanders, Delores Hinton, Vivian Aery, Patricia Hill; apprentice workers- Cheryl McClinton, Wonda Boyce, Loretta Williams and Cyndi Terry.

Remarks were also given by Mrs. Worth's husband, Earl Worth. "The ship is sailing, climb aboard, reach out and touch somebody's hand, let's make this world a better place," he announced. Worth also recognized their two daughters, Princess and LaRita and Mrs. Worth's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Dooley.

Lorena Simpson, aunt of Mrs. Worth was also present and spoke in behalf of Mrs. Worth's mothers, Kathryn Dooley and other family members who are proud of Mrs. Worth's accomplishments.

But Mrs. Worth confessed that none of this would have been possible without the help of God. "Throughout the ceremony I gave God all my praises," Mrs. Worth revealed.

ing. They were Rosalind Nero, Subrina Gaddy and Anne M. Collins.

"The staff and I would like to thank each and everyone for their presence and participation," Mrs. Worth submitted.

In her appreciation for all the kindness shown to her Mrs. Worth is now extending a special to all customers. Simply call 333-4210.

Other guests at Sunshine Beauty Salon's opening included Rev. T. W. Samuels, pastor of Mt. Moriah Primitive Church, who gave the closing prayer; Mr. and Mrs. John Huff; Jim Gallis and a host of other friends and relatives.
