15 Candidates Are Taking Their Pledging Seriously

Candidates for the Charlotte Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta are taking their pledging seriously and already plunging full force into community service.

The group of fifteen professional ladies have volunteered many hours of tutoring and recreational activities for the Renaissance, the only residential treatment program for 16-19 year old women in Mecklenburg County.

They have donated se-

Winchester Is Home On Special Assignment

Fresh from basic and advanced individual training at Ft. Jackson, S.C., Army Private Phyllis M. Winchester, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mack G. Winchester of Bridal Wood Lane, Charlotte, is home on a special, temporary assignment for the U.S. Army.

Until mid-May, Phyllis will assist her former recruiter, Sergeant First Class A. G. Player, at the Army Recruiting Station, 3601 E. Independence Blvd., Charlotte, as a Hometown Recruiter Aide, talking to young men and women of the Charlotte area of her personal Army experiences.

A graduate of Garinger High School, Phyllis was trained in Army basics and advanced individual training in administration at Ft. Jackson, S.C. She will leave for her first permanent duty station as an administrative specialist at Ft. Stewart, Ga., May 15.

JCSU Students Present Paper

To NISBSP

Two Johnson C. Smith University students presented papers at the Thirty-Eighth Annual Meeting of the Beta Kappa Chi Scientific Honor Society, National Institute of Science and Brookhaven Semester Program held recently in Houston, Texas.

Roy L. Henry, a senior from Charlotte, presented his paper entitled, "The Effects of Modeling on Avoidance Learning in Fish."

Reginald Jackson, senior, from Brooklyn, N.Y., presented his paper entitled, "The Influence of Gender on the Attitudes of Black College Students Toward Selected Ethnic Groups."

Both students received incentive awards for their presentations.

Henry also made his presentation at the Carolinas' Psychology Conference which was held in Raleigh.

Burkhalter

Named Part-Time Consultant

John M. Belk, chairman of the board of Belk Stores Services, Inc., today announced that former Charlotte City Manager David A. Burkhalter has been retained as a part-time consultant for Belk Stores.

Burkhalter will be involved in the areas of government relations, community affairs and other management-related activities for the Belk organization, which operates nearly 400 department stores throughout the Southeast.

"We're very pleased that David Burkhalter has agreed to serve as a consultant for us," Belk said. "He's a superb manager with excellent management skills and know-how. His outstanding career as a city manager illustrates this. I'm sure we'll benefit greatly from our association with David."

Burkhalter has more than 29 years of management experience in municipal government, including nearly 10 years as Charlotte City Manager. He retired from that position on February 27, 1981.
