"Demonstration

Team Will

Perform Here

The internationally known U.S. Air Force Thunderbirds aerial demonstration team will perform in Charlotte on Wednesday, April 29th.

The N.C. Air National Guard will be host to the Thunderbirds with an Open House starting at 4 p.m. In addition to the Thunderbirds, there will be numerous modern and sophisticated U.S. Air Force Fighter Aircraft on display for the public to see.

It all began for the Thunderbirds when they performed their first aerial demonstration on June 16, 1953 at Williams Air Force Base in Arizona.

In the ensuing 28 years, the Thunderbirds have displayed their artistry before millions of spectators worldwide. The young, and not so young alike, across a variety of cultures and languages, have marveled at the skill and precision of Air Force pilots performing intricate maneuvers in the skies.

The Air National Guard base will be open to the public beginning at 4 p.m. The Thunderbird's performance will begin at 6 p.m., so plan to arrive at the airport well before that time.
