

DEBRA LAWS DRAWING

Mia Womack of Charlotte was the first place winner in the Elektra Asylum-Debra Laws "Very Special Contest" drawing held at WGIV radio. She won a weekend for two at the Sea Brook Island Resort, plus $160 in cash. Pictured from left to right are Barry Kay, the morning disc jockey at WGIV, Mia Womack, Ty

Miller, the new record promoter of Elektra in Charlotte, and Chuck "Boo" Baron, a former WGIV disc jockey. Ten second place winners will receive five albums a piece from Elektra-Asylum. Twenty third place winners will each receive a Debra Laws album. (Photo by Jim Black Photographers)

Clark Family Reunion Set

Anything worth doing is worth doing right. That's certainly how the Clark family feels. And the family reunion that they are planning for next year will be done the right way. Starting in ample time, the Clark family met Sunday, July 5, at the home of Ms. Eddie Mae Smith, at 502 Fairwood Ave. to discuss future plans for their family reunion.

It was decided that the family reunion scheduled for July, 1982 will be held at the family church, Rock Branch Baptist Church, located in Lancaster County, South Carolina. This reunion would be the initial reunion for the Clark family. Although the family gathered primarily to discuss the family reunion each member of the family brought covered dishes and enjoyed lunch as well. The Clark family consists of: Mr. Nolan Clark of Charlotte, Mrs. Arbites Allen of Lancaster, S.C., Mrs. Irene Johnson of Charlotte, Mrs. Edith Tulin of Philadelphia, Pa., Mr. Felton Clark of Charlotte, Mr. Vise Clark of Queens, N.Y., Ms. Eddie Mae Smith of Charlotte and Mr. Kenneth Clark of Charlotte. They are the children of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clark.

Health Clinics

Community Health Association Senior Health Clinics will be held in July and August at 39 regular locations. These clinics will provide urine testing and check blood pressure. Call 375-0172 between 8:30 a.m. and 5 p.m. for the date and location of all clinics.

Severe Stomach Pain May Indicate Illness

Every have a stomach ache?
Sure. Everybody gets an abdominal pain once in a while.

There are hundreds of causes of abdominal pain. Some are quite serious and require immediate medical care.

Of course, most stomach pains are not appendicitis. Mostly it's over eating, or eating heavy, rich, hard-to-digest foods.
