Revival Services To Highlight Ben Salem's Anniversary Celebration

By Teresa Burns
Post Staff Writer
For 112 years Ben Salem United Presbyterian Church has served the Charlotte community. Along with this year's anniversary celebration the church has scheduled a revival which begins Thursday, September 10, and lasts until Sunday, September 13.

Services will be held Thursday and Friday nights at 7:30 p.m. at the church, 2414 N. Sharon Amity Road.

Thursday, Evangelist Rev. Wilch H. Caldwell Sr., pastor of Faith Memorial Baptist Church, will be the guest speaker. His choir and congregation will accompany him.

Friday, September 11, Evangelist Rev. Jeremiah Robinson of First Mayfield Memorial Baptist Church, will deliver the message. His congregation and choir will also accompany their pastor to this service.

Prayer services will be conducted before these nightly services.

On Sunday, September 13, 3 p.m., the 112th anniversary observance service with guest speaker Rev. George C. Goodman, pastor of C.N. Jenkins Memorial United Presbyterian Church, will be conducted. The Gospel Choir and congregation of C.N. Jenkins will also participate.

The public is cordially invited to attend and share in these uplifting fellowships. Rev. Ray A. Booton is host minister.

FIRST UNITED PRESBYTERIAN
The Women's Organization of First United Presbyterian Church has planned a two-evening forum entitled "Black Female Church Involvement in the 80s." Thursday, September 10, and Friday, September 11, from 6:30 - 9:15 p.m. at First United Presbyterian Church, corner of Seventh and College Streets.

Emphasis will be given to such topics as "Religious Challenges for Black Females in the 80s," "Continued Political Involvement in the 80's for Black Females," "Economics and the Black Woman - Is There Such A Thing in the 80's?" etc.

Members of the panels are Nannie Nelson, Charlotte Hampton, Cleo Yongue, Bertha Maxwell, Sarah Stevenson, Willie Smith, Lender Stewart, Julia Prince, Jean Webber, Marnite Shurford, Mabel McLean, Carol Ricks, Sandra Martin, Donna Patterson, Celesta McCollough and Idelia Procter.

These forums will culminate in the observance of Woman's Day Sunday, September 13. The speaker for this event will be Julia Prince. Cleo Yongue is president of the UPW and Mabel Rhoden is program chairman.

Rev. Dr. Raymond Worsley is minister of First Mayfield Presbyterian Church of Charlotte.

MEMORIAL UNITED PRESBYTERIAN
Memorial United Presbyterian Church will hold its fourth annual revival September 8-10. Each evening beginning at 7:30 p.m. there will be prayer and song. At 8 p.m. the revival services will begin.
