

LAS AMIGAS INSTALLATION

chapter, from the new members. Mrs. Carolyn Pitts and Mrs. Mattie Miller hosted a "Hospitality Fling" in honor of the members' guests while the ceremony was taking place. New members attended two orientation sessions at the home of Dr. Joyce Waddell, 1928 Bonnie Lane. Installation activities were planned by Las Amigas members Dora Johnson, Gerri Wiley, Joyce Waddell and Rosalind Stinson.

North Carolina Mutual Promotes William Forney

By Teresa Burns Post Staff Writer

William C. Forney saw that there was nowhere for him to go but forward when it came to his career at North Carolina Mutual Insurance Co. and that's exactly where he's headed.

Promoted recently from agent, Charlotte District, to Field Training Supervisor at the home office in Durham, Forney is one of the most well-respected employees in the company. He will supervise North Carolina, South Carolina, Virginia, Washington, D. C. and Maryland.

"Forney has personally developed over 100 people to success during his management career," Nathan Payne, District Sales Manager, Charlotte, announced.

"When I arrived in Charlotte to manage the Charlotte district we knew of Mr. Forney's ability to train. During six months of my observation I knew his talents should be used throughout the North Carolina systems," Payne added.

"Charlotte, N. C. is proud of him. The Charlotte District has lost a good trainer but North Carolina Mutual still has his leadership qualities."

Forney, who has been with North Carolina Mutual for 25 years, graduated from A&T State University with a B.S. degree.

His working philosophy, according to his wife Sadie Forney of Charlotte, is dedication. "He enjoys what he is doing and he enjoys working with people."

"I believe his ambitions are to be the best at what he is doing," she related. Forney's hobbies include sports, basketball, football, just about any type of sports fascinates him.

He is a member of West Charlotte Optmist Club and attends Friendship Baptist Church.

He and his wife have three children, Jacquelyne, William and Barney.
