

Miss Janice Ann Harry Weds Dexter Lamarr Feely

Janice Ann Harry and Dexter Lamarr Feely were married recently at Mayfield Memorial Baptist Church. Rev. Harold S. Diggs officiated the double-ring ceremony and the grandfather of the bride, Rev. Zertie Johnson pastor of Shiloh Baptist Church in Townville, S.C., conducted the wedding prayer.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Harry of Charlotte. Mr. and Mrs. Ira Lee Feely of Charlotte are the parents of the groom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an imported ivory silk satin wedding gown which featured a Queen Anne neckline, bracelet sleeves and a basque bodice with a peplum in the back.

The bodice was covered with ecru Alencon lace and seed pearls that extended to the peplum. There were motifs of the same exquisite design on the sleeve and forming a triangle on the front of the skirt, creating a border which extended into a cathedral-length train.

Her cathedral-length veil was edged in ecru Alencon lace and was attached to a lace covered Juliet cap enhanced with silk flowers. She wore a strand of pearls and carried an ivory prayer book adorned with a white orchid.

Mrs. Blossom Cooper, sister of the groom, was matron of honor. Joyce Robinson, cousin of the bride from Belton, S.C., was maid of honor. Both matron and maid of honor wore lavender gowns with full circular skirts, spaghetti straps and sheer bolero type jackets edged with ecru lace of orchid.
