League To Honor Six

James Finney, president of Celanese Fibers Market Company will be the featured speaker at the Charlotte Business League's fourth annual banquet and awards presentation to be held Saturday, October 31, at 7:30 p.m. in the Radisson Plaza Hotel, according to Franklin McCain, public relations chairman for the league.

Finney, headquartered at the Celanese office in New York, is a graduate of North Carolina State University and Nichols College in New York. He has served the company for over 20 years and participated in fundraising activities for the Anti-Defamation League and the National Conference of Christians and Jews. Finney was honored as Textile Salesman of the Year, received an award for Distinguished Humanitarian Award from the National Conference of Christians and Jews.

Celanese, according to McCain has a superior reputation of providing equal employment opportunities for blacks.

McCain said he expects 400 to attend, including CBL members, representatives from various businesses and other guests.

Former winners have included Sam Johnson of Sam Johnson Lincoln-Mercury and "Mr. Grigsby" who developed the teacher's credit union. Professional golfer Charles Sifford received a special award last year.

Three to six honorees will be chosen by a nominating committee and notified before the banquet.

Prior to this event seminars on business finance, maintaining a business and other related topics will be held during that week. James Polk serves as president of the Charlotte Business League.

Washington

Height Garden

Club News

Chairpersons of the Washington Height Garden Club made their reports at the October meeting.

Committees had sent cards to the sick and shut-in and also to the Ber-creed families.

President of the club, Nancy English, presided over the meeting which was held at the home of Bertha Sowell on Russell Street. Mrs. Sowell served a delicious dinner.

The Civic Chairman said her committee will clear off the dead flowers and trim the hedges and rose bushes at Oaklawn Elementary School as soon as possible.

Chrysanthemum flowers and their care was a topic of discussion also. Each month a different flower and its care procedures will be discussed.

Members attending the meeting included Nancy English, Lois Scott, Edena Williams, Willette Patterson, Essie Stoval, Lillie Mae Carter, Jessie Lee Hamlin, Cora Gaither, Pearl Phillip and Bertha Sowell.

The November meeting will be at the home of Geniva Sizemore, 2221 Booker Avenue.

MRS. VICTOR J. SCOTT
...The former Miss Janette Hill

Miss Janette Hill Weds Sargeant Victor Scott

Janette Hill and Sgt. Victor J. Scott were married Saturday, October 10, at Memorial United Presbyterian Church here in Charlotte. Officiating the ceremony was the Rev. Edward Newberry. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mr. Willie Hill Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Hill Sr. are the parents of the bride. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ernest R. Scott Sr.

The bride wore an all silk peau d' soie wedding gown embedded with Brussel lace which instituted the regal portrait neckline. The fitted sleeves' Brussel lace unfolds on a snug bodice complemented by the empire waistline.

The front of the gown was embedded with lace and touched with paletts of bridal pearls to the scalloped lace hemline flattered by the traditional chapel train.

The groom was attired in an official Marine Corps formal dress uniform of navy and royal blue.

The maid of honor was Samara Hill, sister of the bride and the matron of honor was Hazeline Scott Sarter, sister of the groom.

Bridesmaids were Ellen Scott Banknight, Deborah Johnson, Mary H. Reid and Pamela Kincaid. Junior bridesmaids were Shannon Banknight and Kristi L. Johnson.

Ebony Monique Scott and Vanessa J. Sarter served as flower girls while master Narvel A. Scott served as ring bearer.

Ernest R. Scott Sr. was the best man. Ushers included Preston Hill, Wendell Hill, Anthony J. Scott, Ernest R. Scott Jr. and James A. Scott. Junior ushers were Shawn Gerald and Eric Johnson.

The pre-nuptial music was provided by organist Charles McCrary and solo was sung by Sylvia McManus.

Sword officials were Sgt. Frank Williams, Sgt. Robert Wilson, Sgt. Ronnie Brown, Sgt. Timothy Hoffman, Sgt. Carl Cole, Sgt. Mitchell Brown, Cpl. Dana Stockman and Cpl. Rodney Faurie.

Directors of the wedding were Margaret Roberts and Elizabeth Gamble.

To celebrate such a renowned occasion the bride was congratulated with four showers. A kitchen shower given by Sylvia Morgan, a bathroom shower given by Mrs. Robert L. Davis Sr., a lingerie shower, given by Margaret Roberts and a shower given by co-workers, Jim Doby, Marion Hayes, Polly Barber, Edith Hatcher, Jim Possinger and Vera Gathings.

The bride attends Central Piedmont Community College and is also employed with Southern Bell as a trunk assigner in the switch services department.

The groom pursues a 10-year career in the U.S. Marine Corps and is presently stationed in Charleston S.C.

The couple will honeymoon in the Bahamas and will reside in Charleston, S.C.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the Golden Eagle, Downtown.

Pre-School

Swim Classes

Offered

Recreational swim classes for pre-school aged children are now being offered by the Charlotte YWCA at the Park Road center pool, Saturdays, 2:45 to 3:30 p.m.

Children must be accompanied by an adult - limit two children for each supervising adult. Cost is 75 cents per session for adult; 50 cents for child. Prior enrollment is not necessary. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

"The recreational swim is excellent for practice of what has been learned in regular classes," said Stephanie Sullivan, aquatics director. She may be contacted at 525-5770, ext. 36, Monday through Friday, 9-5 p.m.
