PM Magazine To Visit Namath's Camp

"P M Magazine" discovers the ultimate football camp Friday, October 23 at 7:30 p.m. on WBTV, Channel 3.

While most kids have to learn the basics of football from neighborhood coaches, the youngsters at the Joe Namath football camp actually learn from the stars! They rub elbow pads with past and present football greats, learn their secrets, and in the process, build a sense of team spirit.

There's actually a ratio of one football star to every seven kids.

The guy who put it all together, and the one the kids most want to see and learn from is Broadway Joe himself. Each day he helicopters in to show future quarterbacks his style. "P M Magazine's" Ray Murray visits the camp to find out "On The Square"

Doug Mayes will interview North Carolina Insurance Commission John Ingram on his half-hour edition of "On The Square," Sunday, October 25, at 6:30 p.m. on WBTV, Channel 3.

Mayes will question the Commissioner about automobile insurance rates, the new surcharges for drivers with points, and how convictions for drunk driving will affect insurance rates under the new laws.

Mayes will also ask Ingram whether or not he plans to run for Governor in 1984.

"On The Square" will be taped in the WBTV studios a few days before the broadcast.

WKRP In Cincinnati

Rumors run amok at the station and Bailey's the prime target when she temporarily allows Johnny Fever to move in with her, on "WKRP in Cincinnati," Wednesday, October 28, at 8:30 p.m. on WBTV, Channel 3.

Johnny is feeling doubly insecure when exterminators oust him from his apartment and he believes his job is in jeopardy. Kindhearted Bailey bears the brunt of Johnny's troubles, but, in a very special way, manages to turn the rumor mill in another direction.
