

Hair Original Sponsors Aerobics, Slimnastic Classes

No one can deny that the success and enthusiasm aroused with in any class is due to the instructor. For no other reason than "declaring war on fat, instructors Valerie G. Brown and Pauline Bost plan to be two of the most serious in the aerobics and slimnastics field.

Their classes are being sponsored by the Hair Original Beauty Center and will be held for six weeks at the center's location, 2020 N. Graham Street.

The entire six week program will cost only $20 or $2 per class. A free, introductory class was held April 17 from 10-11 a.m.

Classes began April 19, Monday and Wednesday 5:30-6:30; Tuesday and Thursday from 7:45-8:45 p.m. and Saturdays from 10-11 a.m.

Not only will you learn the movement of aerobic exercises set to music but Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Bost will also share with you their knowledge concerning the improvement of your blood circulation; increasing cardiovascular fitness; releasing tension; and giving you pleasure, enjoyment and self-satisfaction.

Now a little about the instructors who plan to give you something to look forward to, Mrs. Brown is a certified instructor of Aerobics and Slimnastics. She has three years of instructional experience at Central Piedmont Community College. She holds a master's degree in Education and Curricular Instruction.

Mrs. Bost is an expert in the field of nutrition and diet. She holds a master's degree in the area of Food and Nutrition and is registered with the American Diabetics Association. She also has 12 years of experience with Public Health.

Dukes Of Hazzard

Uncle Jesse gets arrested for helping a pretty fugitive escape from Boss Hogg and Rosco's clutches, and the Duke clan has to nip Hogg's latest get-rich scheme in the bud to free their uncle, on a rebroadcast of "The Dukes of Hazzard," Friday, April 23, at 8 p.m. on WBTV, Channel 3. Johnny Paycheck guest stars, singing "Take This Job and Shove It."

With the Tri-city Motocross Race scheduled in Hazzard, Hogg has a new business—stealing and reselling motorcycles. His scheme is discovered by a pretty transient and the Dukes try to help her escape the consequences. But Uncle Jesse gets caught smuggling her across the county line and it's up to the cousin to get him out of jail.

Barber-Scotia College Will

Present Fifth International Festival

Barber-Scotia College will present its 5th Annual International Festival through Sunday, April 23.

The festival is organized through the Center for International and Multi-cultural Studies at BSC and is designed to broaden the knowledge of students, faculty, staff and the local communities in internationalism by providing opportunities for world study and international understanding.

"This year's theme, 'Education for International Understanding' is intended to help us focus on a celebration of the spirit of internationalism and multi-culturalism in our communities," says Dr. David Panyako, chairman of the Division of Social Sciences and Education and director of the project.

Dr. Panyako says that the festival week will include seminars, cultural entertainment, native costumes and dishes, and exhibits. Most of the events are free of charge and are open to the public.

International Festival highlights include:

National Volunteer Week is being held now, April 18-24. The purpose is to pay tribute to Americans of all ages who have contributed their time and talent to the chase of volunteerism throughout the County.
