

Carowinds Announces Rock And Roll '82

The Carowinds' Paladium will open for a special concert on Friday night, May 21st for its annual Rock and Roll event which will feature three top name bands.

Carowinds will open at 5 p.m. for Rock and Roll '82 and the concert with the Outlaws, LeRoux and the George Hatcher Band will begin at 7:30 p.m. The park will close at 12 midnight.

The Outlaws have been known as a powerful rock and roll band since 1974 when they released "Outlaws," an album that easily went gold and featured the hit single "There Goes Another Love Song."

Since that time the Outlaws have released seven albums, including their latest "Los Hombres Malo."

LeRoux, the popular rock band from Louisiana, is currently on the charts with their song "Nobody Said It Was Easy" from their latest album "Last Safe Place." Formerly called Louisiana's LeRoux, the band is known for its top 40 single, "New Orleans Ladies," which hit number one in several markets in 1978.

Special guest star the George Hatcher Band will open the show at 7:30 p.m. This local band is especially popular in the Carolinas with their hit "Coming Home" from the album of the same name.

Advance tickets to Rock and Roll '82 are $10.95. Tickets purchased at the door will be $12.50. Ticket price includes admission to the park and the concert. Because Carowinds is not normally open on Fridays, this is a special non-operating day, and season passes and other discount tickets will not be honored.

Carowinds is located on I-77, 10 miles south of Charlotte and 12 miles north of Rock Hill on the North Carolina-South Carolina border.

LeRoux, the popular rock band

Dallas

In his vendetta against the Farlows for harboring Sue Ellen and his son, J.R. puts Ewing Oil on the line by secretly attempting to borrow $200 million to dry up the supply of oil to the Farlow refineries, on a rebroadcast of "Dallas," Friday, May 21 at 9 p.m. on WBTV, Channel 3.

J.R.'s campaign against Clayton and Dusty already shows its effect with the Farlows concerned about mysteriously late crude oil shipments, but J.R.'s zeal for revenge makes him blind to the fact that he is opening himself up to retribution from his enemies. Bobby buys information about Kristin's baby, while his wife meets her half-sister in the hospital where Pam is under Dr. Conrad's care; Punk Anderson is forced to pull out of his business project with Ray, and Ray decides to try it alone until an uneasy Donna convinces him to let her be his partner; Lucy's hopes for a reconciliation with Mitch get a boost when she learns that he is considering an internship that would keep him in Dallas.
