Shaw University Day Will Be Observed Here Sunday Morning

By Teresa Simmons
Post Managing Editor
Shaw University Day will be observed at First Baptist Church-West Sunday, May 30 at the 11 a.m. service.

Dr. Stanley H. Smith, president of Shaw will be the guest speaker. Jointly sponsored by First Baptist and the Fred L. Frewer Alumni Chapter of Shaw University, a time will be set aside following the service for high school seniors to confer with Dr. Smith.

Dr. Elizabeth S. Randolph, a trustee of Shaw and a graduate, will introduce Dr. Smith. Benni Singleton will represent the National Alumni Association of Shaw.

Singleton will also address a meeting to be held Saturday, May 29 at the home of Jessie Richmond on Sierra Drive.

Music for this occasion will be presented by the Chancel and Angelic Choirs. Cedric Jones, president of the local Shaw University Alumni Chapter entitled the Fred Lorenzo Brewer Jr. Chapter will preside during the program.

Jones, a Charlottean, is a retired English teacher of the Charlotte-Mecklenburg School System and recently received an honorary Pedagogy Doctorate degree from the Teamer School of Religion.

Dr. Smith has served as president of the historical black college since 1978. He graduated magna cum laude from Fisk University, Nashville, Tenn., and received his Ph.D. degree from Washington State University, Pullman, Washington, in 1953. During his tenure as president of Shaw he has improved many of the curriculums including the business management, and radio-television film departments.

He is a member of various organizations and has published 22 works.

Dr. Smith is indeed an outstanding scholar and leader. The public is cordially invited to hear this gentleman speak. Rev. Dr. J. B. Humphrey is pastor of First Baptist Church-West, located at 1801 Oaklawn Avenue.

GRIER HEIGHTS

Do you find Bible study a difficult task? For many the text is not easily understood. Pastors suggest we pray for the understanding but in addition there are other directions to take.

Grier Heights United Presbyterian Church, located at 325 Skyland Avenue, will hold a Bible Study Group Tuesday, June 1 at 7:30 p.m.

This group will start from the beginning of the Bible. The lesson will be Genesis III and IV. Quinton Boulware will be the leader of the Bible Study Class.

The Girl Scouts of Grier Heights United Presbyterian Church are planning a trip to Disney World June 11-13. If you would like to take this trip contact Camilla Clark or Vivian Wright.

The pastor of Grier Heights is Rev. Loud B. Morris.
