

Miss Pamela Donaldson Is Bride Of Phillip Richardson

MRS. ALLEN PAUL AIKENS
...The former Miss Beverly Coleman

Coleman-Aikens Vows Said

Joined in holy matrimony September 4, at Little Rock AME Zion Church, Beverly Coleman and Allen Paul Aikens began their life as man and wife.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur James Coleman of Matthews.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Aikens of Charlotte.

Rev. William White performed the ceremony. Organist was Ted Avery, while the soloist was George Holmes, uncle of the groom. The trumpeter was Lee Richardson.

The bride came down the aisle in a long sleeved chiffon laced gown with a sequenced high neck-line trimmed with lace and accented by a matching veil. She carried a bouquet which consisted of two dozen white roses and ivy.

The maid of honor, Karen Womack of Pittsburg, Pa. wore a mauve floor length gown with a matching lace jacket. She carried pink carnations.

Beginning their lives together as man and wife Pamela Elaine Donaldson and Phillip Hugh Richardson Jr. were wed Saturday, September 11 at 5 p.m. at Walls Memorial AME Zion Church.

Rev. Jerry L. White performed the ceremony. He was assisted by Rev. Clyde V. Owens of First Mt. Zion Baptist Church.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a white gown of Crystaleen Organza and taffeta. Featuring a modified empire waistline, a Queen Anne neckline and long full sleeves with deep lace cuffs the bodice of the gown was accented with appliques of silk Venice lace and seed pearls. Attached to the skirt was a row of Venice lace cascading vertically on the gown. Motifs of Venice lace, daisies and petals were scattered throughout the train. Also, the edge of the bride's gown was bordered with lace.

For the headpiece the bride chose a designer hat highlighted with a wide illusion bow and streamers extending from the back of the hat to the train. The hat was designed with rolled sides and appliques of Venice lace, daisies and petals embroidered with seed pearls.

She carried a lace fan with cascades of white silk Cattaya Orchids, sweetheart roses and stephanotis.

Wearing sky blue taffeta sleeveless gowns designed with off-the-shoulder ruffled collars, full gathered skirts and cummerbunds, the maid of honor was Valinda C. Donaldwal, the bride's sister and the bridesmaids were the bride's cousin, Jacqueline Johnson, Barbara Miller, the groom's aunt, Sharron Richardson, the groom's sister and Glenda Grate.

Little Miss Heather M. Davis, the bride's cousin was the flower girl.

Master Everette L. Ragin was the ring bearer.

Selected by the groom as his best man, Gregory Richardson, the groom's brother was accompanied by groomsmen Norman Craig, Howard Cuthbertson, Hosea Miller Jr., the groom's uncle and Joseph White Jr.

Organist-pianist Worth Williams and soloists Jackey Brown and Lincoln Quick provided the music for the wedding service.

The wedding couple arrived at the reception at the YWCA, East Trade St. in a horse drawn carriage. Mrs. Doretha Davis served as receptionist while Jackie Bass, Beverly Coleman and Pamela Love were the hostesses.

A graduate of Myers Park High School and Greensboro College, the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Donaldson of 6237 Monteith Dr. She is also a member of Alpha Phi Omega Jewels. A Marine veteran, the groom graduated from Myers Park High School. Employed by Piedmont Airlines, he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Richardson Sr. of 1801 Pondella Drive. After a honeymoon in Denver, Colorado, the couple will reside in Charlotte.
