Public Invited To First Festival On The Green

CONCORD - Barber-Scotia College will host its first annual "BSC Festival On The Green" on Saturday, October 30, from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. on the campus quadrangle. The event is expected to draw between 800 to 1,000 people from the surrounding communities.

The "BSC Festival On The Green" is a potpourri of exhibits and sales, arts and crafts, foods, music, dance, games and other forms of planned activities.

"We are very excited about the festival," says Melvin Walton, BSC public relations director. "Being an integral part of the community, Barber-Scotia has planned this festival as part of the institution's continued effort to blend the college with the community. And there has been a great response from the community in terms of festival preparations."

Festival goers should definitely look forward to the center stage entertainment program which will offer jazz, gospel, folk, rhythm and blues, and clogging continuously throughout the day. The entertainment acts have been designed to appeal to all age groups, says Walton.

The youngsters will find added attractions in clowns, games and prizes along with artists who will paint their faces. There will also be plenty balloons and other delights for the young at heart.

Bordering the festival quadrangle will be exhibits of paintings, photography, woodcraft, and arts and crafts.

"There will be various exhibits," adds Walton. "Many of the community and campus persons have especially designed items for the festival and festival goers. There will be some beautiful work available to see, as well as to buy."

Community human service groups and agencies will have booths at the festival wherein they will distribute information, perform various demonstrations, and avail themselves for questions. Rounding out the festival atmosphere, of course, will be various vendors offering everything from popcorn and candy apples to hotdogs.

Political candidates have also been invited to participate in the festival ceremonies which will feature representatives from various parts of the community.

"It has been hard work," says Walton, "but we've had a lot of support. Now, we're hoping for a nice day and looking forward to seeing our community friends for a fun-filled day of free fun."
