

CIAA Southern Division Title Barely Escapes Bulls' Grasp

One great difference between a wise man and a fool is the former only wishes for what he may possibly obtain; the latter desires impossibilities.

...JUST OUT OF REACH...
There were about five or six buses of J.C. Smith followers who traveled to Durham last Saturday for the all important CIAA match-up with North Carolina Central University. Even though they yelled some, cursed some and prayed some, it wasn't enough to pull the Bulls through. Notwithstanding, the gallant efforts of a determined defense-minded team, the CIAA Southern Division championship just escaped the Bulls' grasp. The most worthy players reached for the moon and fell upon an ever shining star. The star of respectability and love of their many followers.

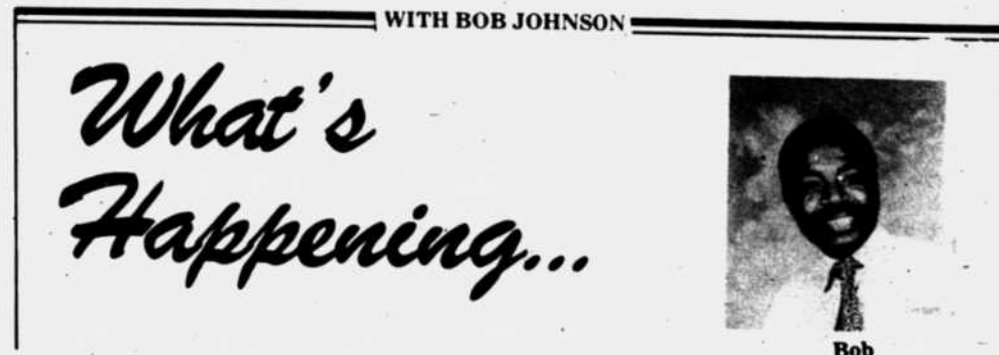

Carol Westbrook, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Heron, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Scott were just a few of the people found in Durham last Saturday afternoon.

YOURS, MINE AND OURS...The Pizazz Band formed a picture-sound gallery last Friday night that was boundless in its intense entertainment value. The six piece group including a female vocalist made such an impression on the large audience, that Leroy "Product" Watkins will probably have them back real soon.

Another very successful venture was the male revue--Physical and Unique. This recent show was for the ladies, and boy did they have a good time.

Every Sunday evening from 6-10 p.m., Yours, Mine and Ours features the only jazz performed on the Westside. The Michael Porter Trio plays the kind of music that never gets old. The kind of music that wakes the soul and lifts it high - a sublime communion.

After the body has been rocked and rolled by the thumping sounds produced by "Booker Boo" and Kenny Murphy Friday and Saturday nights, there is no better way to chill out than at a good jazz set.

UPSTAIRS LOUNGE...
The Free Spirit Social Club is sponsoring a heavy disco Friday night, November 12, from 8 p.m. until 1 a.m.

Door prizes will be given away to the lucky ticket holders and a real fun night should be had.

...SILVER DOLLARS 1982
...It is said that the mind unlearns with difficulty what has long been impressed on it. Nonetheless, it didn't take the minds of the men long to get into the groovy situation created by Sadie Hawkins' night at the Silver Dollars 1982.

Thursday night, November 4, was very eventful. The ladies asked the men to dance; they bought the men drinks and even wriggled some phone numbers. Richard, when is Sadie Hawkins' spirit coming back?

Monday night, November 8, and Tuesday night, November 9, were "Corporate Appreciation" nights. The employees of Eastern Airlines and Aetna Insurance Company were given the run of the house Monday, while the employees of the City & County Governments were distinguished Tuesday night.

The Jet Set group occupied Wednesday night, November 10, with the comedic antics of Lionel Norman. A night engraved in success.

Friday and Saturday nights, Dequilla and the Midnight Madness Band--the group who turned out the Bobbi Humphrey show at Johnson C. Smith--will be featured in late-night shows, 1-3 a.m.

They will also be appearing Sunday night from 10 p.m. until 2 a.m.

KINGS AND QUEENS...
If you want to enjoy the atmosphere in what is billed as Charlotte's finest adult night club, you had better be at the door when it opens. For the last few weeks people have been turned away--especially Friday and Saturday nights.

Tuesday, November 2, Phil Berry was triumphant in his bid for a seat in the State House. Tuesday night the triumph was celebrated with Nathaniel Black at the Kings and Queens. A solid victory for Mr. Black.

Sunday night, November 7, "The Progressive Men's Club" hit real big with a disco engagement.

Sunday night, November 14, "The Efforts of Progress" social club is sponsoring a disco that begins at 7 p.m. They are looking to do the same as the Progressive Men or better.

...MIDWAY LOUNGE...To live is not merely to breathe, it is to act; it is to make use of our organs, senses, faculties, of all those parts of ourselves which give us the feeling of existence. Patsy Bolton really lived the night of November 3rd.

smile. She has a winning way about her as evidenced by the multitude of people on hand to help her celebrate one more year of living.

To show Patsy that they cared these people braved the heavy rain with energy of thought and feeling to share in this anniversary affair, punctuated with good music, good conversation and plenty of good food.
