

Sorority To Present Teen Fashions

The Charlotte Chapter of Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Inc. Beta Omicron Sigma is presenting a Pre-Teen Fashion Cotillion at Belk Uptown - Top of the Tower on Friday, April 8, from 7-9 p.m.

The purpose of this Cotillion is to enhance the cultural development of the young ladies by providing activities which will enrich their personal growth. All proceeds from this affair will benefit Johnson C. Smith University, Barber-Scotia College and other scholarship funds.

Fashions for the Cotillion will be furnished by Belk of Charlotte.

Featured artists are Ms. Comel McDaniel, Missy Bethea, Gethsemene Enrichment Program Baton Twirlers and Aaron Taylor.

Ms. Valecia Beaty will be the commentator for the evening.

Chairwoman for the gala event is Soror Dr. Mildred B. Davis, with committee members, Dorothy Ngon-gang, Valecia Beaty, Allean Conner, Geraldine Taylor, and Warrenna Hankinson.

Geraldine Taylor is Basileus of the sorority.

First Citizens Offers New Bonds

First Citizens Bank is offering a new 18-month bond.

The new savings instrument pays an interest rate tied to 18-month Treasury securities, which change every two weeks.

The bank also introduced additional savings.

April 1. The new 2½% variable rate bond is tied to the six-month money market rate and change monthly. A new year fixed rate bond is a rate established by management.

All the new bonds require a $500 minimum deposit. Interest on all three is compounded daily.

The bonds, authorized by the Depository Institution Deregulation Committee, replace the 2½ year Treasury bond, the 3½ year variable rate bond, and the 3½ year fixed rate bond.

First Citizens Bank is a statewide financial institution serving 113 communities with 245 offices.
