Veda M. Shamsid-Deen
 ....Speech Communications major

Shamsid-Deen Is Active In Student Government

Veda Muneerah Shamsid-Deen, the daughter of Shafeeq and Rasheedah Shamsid-Deen of Huntersville, N.C. is a senior majoring in Speech Communications and English at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro (UNC-G).

While at UNC-G, she has been very active in Student Government. In her junior year, she served as a justice on the University Court and also on the Honor Court. Presently, her services consist of Secretary of Minority Affairs in Student Government. She is the voice for all of the minority students on campus.

Miss Shamsid-Deen likes her position because she says it gives her the opportunity to work with a diverse group of students, as well as meeting and interacting with University Administrators. Miss Shamsid-Deen is also a charter member of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority and has been very active in its under-takings since it was first chartered on the campus in January, 1981.

She feels extra-curricular activities are important, however, academics are more important. This view is exemplified in her striving for academic excellence. She has been on the Dean's List, a member of the Golden Chain Honor Society, and a Junior Scholar; and was recently highly honored when she was selected as one of the University's Twenty Outstanding Students, Twenty Outstanding Seniors, and Senior Class Alumni President. Upon graduation Miss Shamsid-Deen plans to attend law school with an interest in International Law.

John W. Maye, an assistant high school principal in Durham, has been elected national president of the 23,000-member A&T State University Alumni Association. Maye is a native of Greenville, N.C. and a 1973 graduate of A&T.

JCSU Signs 2 To Grants

Reginald Moses, a 6'2" guard from West Charlotte High School and Thomas White, a 6'4" guard from East Alamance Senior High School in Mebane, N.C. have signed athletic grants to Johnson C. Smith University. Moses played the point position for Charles McCollough's West Charlotte Lions, averaging 16 points and five assists his senior year. Reggie was on the varsity three years for us contributing as a good all-around player as well as a fine, young man," remarked McCollough. "Moses played the point in high school but he's a good outside shooter, so he's likely to be moved to the wing," added Smith coach Robert Moore. White averaged 20 points per game as the wing guard for East Alamance, a school outside of Durham, N.C. "Thomas is an exceptional shooter from the outside, and his height will be an advantage," evaluated assistant coach Ike Fullard who scouted White during the 1982-83 prep season.
