Rev. Martin remembers the times when his musical talents were used within a R&B soul group. "But God had other plans for my life," he stated. On June 6, 1978, he preached his initial sermon at his home church, Second Calvary Baptist Church, under the leadership of Rev. Dr. Lemar Foster.

He is minister of music at Second Calvary. Now that Rev. Martin has received his license from Dr. Foster he accepted an assignment from the Lord with the determination and goal for winning souls. He preached one year in Fort Mill, S.C.

"But then God had other plans for me," Rev. Martin began. "On August 9, 1981 under the guidance of God the New Life Baptist Church was founded with about 25 people."

Soon the congregation moved to worship in the Metrolina Funeral Home where Herman Johnson is the president.

Within one year a new piano, a church bus was purchased, organizations and auxiliaries were formed. And more importantly more than 150 souls came unto the Lord.

Rev. Martin delivers inspiring messages over the "You Can Be An Overcomer" broadcast on WQCC Monday through Friday from 9:15-9:30 a.m.

The church now has moved into a church building in the Allen Hill community. Members also purchased four acres of land off West Blvd.

Monday night Bible classes are held at the church; Wednesday night prayer service, and Friday night intercessory prayer is held.
