Oratorio Singers Launch FundRaiser

The 150 member Oratorio Singers of Charlotte has launched a fund raiser that promises to award one ticket holder a hand-made yacht valued at $3,000. The yacht, built by Colonel Richard E. Knie, is made of wood and is the grand prize in a raffle currently underway. Other items being raffled are to include a lithograph, an etching and porcelain and other art works by regional artists.

According to Oratorio Singers' President Jerry Jernigan, Colonel Knie and his wife, Barbara, are long time supporters of the Singers. "We're delighted to have such a marvelous piece of art contributed to the organization, particularly since it comes from the hands of our dear friend," said Jernigan.

Jernigan explains, "The Board of Directors felt that a raffle with these unique prizes was the best way to involve both the Singers and all of our supporters in a project to benefit the Oratorio."

The raffle culminates November 12 with a party at White Oaks, home of Bill and Claire Allen. There will be minimal admission fee to the wine and hors d'oeuvres event where the winning tickets will be drawn.

Money raised from the raffle will go into the general fund for the Oratorio Singers. The group is currently preparing Bach's "Christmas Oratorio" for a performance in December.

Anyone interested in purchasing a ticket for the raffle or the November 12 celebration should call the Oratorio Singers, 332-8151, or contact any Oratorio member.
