

Dr. Robert L. AlbrightReceives honor

Albright Attends

Foundations

Projects

Johnson C. Smith University President, Dr. Robert L. Albright, will join other recently appointed presidents and chancellors of historically black colleges and universities in a conference sponsored by the Johnson, Charles F. Kettering and Charles Stewart Mott Foundations. The three-day meeting will be held January 4-6, at the Wingspread, the conference center of the Johnson Foundation in Racine, Wis.

The purpose is to better acquaint recent presidents (three-year tenure or less) with the foundation sector of philanthropy and to help increase their effectiveness in soliciting aid on behalf of their institutions. The conference is in cooperation with the Council on Foundations and the National Association for Equal Opportunity in Higher Education (NAFEO).

James Joseph, president of the Council on Foundations, will keynote the conference.

Dr. Duval

Named Assistant

Vice President

Dr. Gloria Miller Duval, executive assistant for program evaluation and assistant professor of medical education, School of Medicine of Mercer University in Macon, GA, has been named assistant vice president for development at Johnson C. Smith University.

President Robert L. Albright announced that Dr. Duval will assume her duties in early January. In the new position, Dr. Duval will be the University's federal relations officer, United Negro College Fund coordinator, and director of non-alumni annual giving. Dr. Duval has served Knox Calls For Changes In Homestead Exemption Act

Eddie Knox, Democratic revaluation of real estate candidate for Governor, eight years in all counties calls for changes in the Homestead Exemption and has just been com-Act, which assists North Carolina's senior citizens by exempting the first $8,500 property tax valuaproperty was increased. tion.

Without changes in the ex-Under our present law, a emption law, those increassenior citizen who has an es could work an additionincome of $9,000 or less al hardship on elderly peodoesn't pay property tax on ple, many of whom live on limited or fixed incomes," the first $8,500 valuation," Knox explained. "I feel that the valuation level and Knox said.

At the same time, inflathe income figure should be tion and increases in Social Security payraised substantially." Knox pointed out that ments, such as the 3.5-percent increase expected for taxation goes on every in January, means that some persons originally eligible for the exemption pleted in many counties, will now no longer be able including Wake. "In most to receive it. Thus, their cases the tax valuation of tax burden will increase.

"For a person trying to live on a fixed income or near the poverty level, such additional tax burdens would be difficult or impossible to bear," Knox said.

"All of us, including our elderly citizens, must pay our fair share of taxes. But, imposing greater burdens fair."

Knox pledged that as Governor he will urge the legislature to study the situation and raise the valuation exemption level "There can be considerable inequities that develop in the Homestead Exemption Act as a result of and the income eligibility property tax revaluation.

This problem needs careful study and something needs to be done to remove those inequities which adversely affect the elderly," he said.

Red Cross Schedules Health Courses

Red Cross health courses in January include: "Family Health and Home Nursing," "Babysitting," and "Preparation For Parenthood.

"Family Health And on these people just isn't Home Nursing" focuses on maintaining good health, preventing illness and performing simple nursing skills in the home. Two courses are being offered, both meeting on Tuesdays and Thursdays. One class meets from 9 a.m. - noon. Friday, 9 a.m. - 5 p.m.

The other class meets 6-9 p.m. These health courses will be held at the Red Cross, 2425 Park Road, Charlotte. For more information, call 376-1661, Monday through Keeping You Posted

Start your exciting 52 weeks of The Charlotte Post. It contains news about your community and list special events and happenings for the entire family. Call the Circulation Department, 376-0496, to start your subscription this week.

ħ

1

concurrently as a consultant with the Evaluation Center of Western Michigan University, Kalamazoo where she was a member of the case study team assigned to the program for historically black colleges at the Charles Stewart Mott Foundation.

The new appointee is a 1969 graduate of Paine College, August, GA, with her master's of Art degree from American University, Washington, DC, in 1972, and a doctorate of Education from W. Michigan in 1983. At Western Michigan, she was an editor in the department of educational leadership and an instructor in the College of General Studies.

Previously she was director of social sciences at the Institute for Services to Education in both Washington, DC, and New Orleans at Dillard Uni-

Your choice of cubic zirconia fashion jewelry for Christmas giving

(a) Special purchase of fashion cubic zirconia earrings set in elegant gold tone designs. This selection is lvey's exclusively in the United States. Choose from pierced and clip designs. Here, we show you just a few from our collection! (b) Special purchase of boxed pendant and pierced earrings set in your choice of 1/2, 3/4, 1 or 11/2 carat sizes. Beautifully presented and ready to wrap. vey's Fashion Jewelry: all stores