

Barber-Scotia College will celebrate its 117th birthday with a Founders Day Program on Friday, January 20, at 7 p.m., in the College Convocation Center. Keynote speaker for the occasion will be Dr. James H. Costen, president of the Interdenominational Theological Center. Dr. Costen was also moderator of the 194th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. Dr. Costen's community activities are equally impressive. He is founder and chairperson of the board, Harbison New Town, South Carolina (a planned community of about 3,000 residents), a charter member of Leadership Atlanta, and chairperson of the Boggs Academy Board of Trustees. The community is invited to join Barber-Scotia College family and friends as they celebrate 117 years of rich heritage and tradition.

Small Business Conference Set

"How to Make it Big in Your Small Business" is the theme of a Small Business Administration (SBA) conference to be held at the Charlotte Civic Center, January 20-21. The conference, co-sponsored by Central Piedmont Community College (CPCC), is designed to help veteran small business owners and veterans planning to start a business. Congressman Jim Martin will be the guest speaker at the Friday luncheon and Marshall J. Parker, SBA Associate Deputy Administrator, Washington, will be the guest speaker on Saturday. Seminars will deal with how to plan a business, when an attorney is needed, how to find start-up capital, record keeping, managing people, tax obligations, computers in small business, advertising and cash flow. There will be time for private discussion with the seminar presenters. More than 30 exhibitors will have displays. Registration for both days, including lunches, is $20. For a descriptive brochure and more information, call CPCC at 704-373-6900 or 704-373-6521.
