"Guy" Bluford Is Founder's Day Speaker

Chancellor Charles "A" Lyons, Jr. announces that Lt. Colonel Guion "Guy" Bluford will be the guest speaker for this year's Annual Founders Day Program on April 15, 1984.

These men were not wealthy men; instead they were men of vision who saw a need to educate properly the black children of that day. Therefore, Fayetteville State University administrators feel that it is most appropriate to have our country's first black astronaut share our exciting memories and give us a glimpse of the future - a future in which all of us can share.

Fayetteville State University's observance of Founders Day commemorates the spirit of the seven black men who founded what is now a regional University offering masters degrees in three dis-

Because Fayetteville State University is a vital part of this community, the public is cordially invised to attend.

A native of Philadelphia, Pa., Bluford is the nephew of William Bluford, retired

Johnson C. Smith professor, Charlotte.

Bluford is a distinguished scholar, scientist, flyer and astronaut. He was selected as an astronaut by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) in 1978 and in August, 1983, he became the first black astronaut to be launched into space.

Three Dog Night To Replace Tina Turner

The Original Three Dog Night will perform at 7:30 and 10 p.m. on Thursday, February 16, at Spirit Square Arts Center.

Boris Sellers, Executive Director of the arts center at 110 E. 7th St. made the announcement today.

"We're bringing Three Dog Night to Charlotte for two shows to replace Tina Turner, who canceled her February 16 appearance to tour abroad," Sellers said.

Tickets for Three Dog

Night will be $18. Sellers said Tina Turner tickets will be honored at no extra cost to the bearer. Tickets for the Tina Turner concert were sold for $16.

Refunds will be made to patrons who do not wish to attend the Three Dog Night show. The Spirit Square Box Office is open Monday through Saturday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Call the Box Office at 704-376-6883 for more ticket and refund information.
