

The Great White Throne Of Judgment

In our last message, we saw the books opened at the Great White Throne Judgment and the dead judged according to their works, or their sins. Only the lost will be judged at this judgment. What about the redeemed of the Lord? Since they will be there and not to be judged, what will their part be? I'm going to answer that, just stay with me.

You need to listen and heed the warning messages from the Lord given by my late pastor on "The Voice of Truth" at 7:30 a.m. over WAGIFM and over WAGL-FM at 8 a.m. If you are saved, you can learn how to serve the Lord better. Since you are not saved, you need to be awakened to your lost condition. If you are on this earth, and go out as you came in, unregenerated, it can be said of you as it was said of Judas, "It had been better for that man that he had never been born." Will that be said of you? It's the most awful thing to live and miss Christ.

Now, just what is the part in the Great White Throne Judgment for the born again ones since they will be there, but not to be judged? The beloved Apostle Paul was the greatest representative the Lord ever had on earth, it was he who was caught up to the third Heaven. A Bible teacher said there was no third Heaven. She just hasn't read her Bible. Let's let Paul tell us what will be the part for the Lord's redeemed in this final judgment; "Do ye not know that the saints shall judge the world? Know ye not that we shall judge angels?" (1 Cor. 6:23). How are the saints going to judge the world? By testifying as to what we know on you. The words "judge" and "witness" are legal terms, meaning that someone is going to be tried. You are a saved man, your wife is lost, will not have the Gospel. At the Great White Throne Judgment, you'll have to witness against her. The question will be asked; "Does anyone know this woman here?" A lowly servant of the Lord will have to answer, but far more humbly than he ever did on earth, "Yes, Lord, I know her, she was my wife, but she refused to bow in repentance and acknowledge You as her Lord." "Does anyone know this man here?" Another saint, a godly woman will step forward and say, "Yes, Lord, I know him. He said so many hateful things about You and your messages." I think I heard the most ungodly scream ever uttered, "Mama, look, there is John The Baptist with his head on! I thought we killed him!" Does anyone know these two women here? Out steps John the Baptist, straighter and more handsome than ever with his bushy hair, "Yes, Lord, I know these two women, they cut my head off, but I thank the Lord, that you put it back on." And on and on the testimony will go until every unsaved soul is tried and acknowledges their guilt and that they deserve nothing but the Lake of Fire. Won't that be sad that you will have to witness against your loved ones? And I'll have to witness against friends who worked with me at the Post Office. I've done things for some of you that no one else would do. That is good because you will not be with me in Heaven.

You can call this a dream if you want to, I'm laying before you the eternal realities of another world which you will soon face. Where are you going? Yes, and the beloved apostle said we would judge angels. You remember reading about Lot there in Sodom? Lot will have to witness against those wicked men who wanted to get in and commit sodomy with the angels. What about witnessing against angels? Noah was a preacher of righteousness.

J.M. Little

Fourth in series

Before the flood, the great wickedness that took place that caused God to destroy the earth and all flesh was the "sons of God," or fallen angels, marrying into the human race and producing a giant offspring, half angel and half human. Noah will have to testify against those fallen angels. Call me crazy if you please, when you are brought before the judgment, you will see and know that you were and are the crazy one, not I. You can be and play the fool all you want to, you are going to be brought before the Almighty Sovereign God and give account, man!

Pre-Planning Is Key To Successful Garden

Special To The Post
 Are you one of those persons who always thinks about planting a garden, orders the seed catalogs, dreams of the taste of fresh tomatoes, radishes and corn, but never gets around to actually putting in the garden because it just seems so difficult? Well, take heart. Here are a few tips that will get you up and going.

"It's not difficult to plant a garden, but you have to organize, plan ahead, and learn how to handle your weeds, disease, soil insects, and nematodes.

The first thing you need to do is decide how big you want the garden to be, and what vegetables you want to plant. Make sure you leave enough space between rows. One common mistake novice gardeners make is to crowd too many plants into too small an area.

The National Garden Bureau recommends dividing a 20 ft. by 15 ft. garden into five beds, each two feet wide. This allows for one-foot walkways between the rows.

Next, decide where on your property is the best location for the garden. Take into consideration direction of the sun, shade from surrounding trees, proper moisture and soil type.

The soil should be able to hold water for at least a week. Sandy soil requires continuous watering and is generally not a good soil type for a garden.

Starting your vegetable garden with a soil free of weeds, diseases and insects is the best way to insure bumper harvests. The use of a soil fumigant, which is a chemical solution, allows you to start a garden in clean soil.

Properly used, fumigants can be a major weapon in your fight against weeds, fungus diseases, destructive nematodes and other harmful insects. A little preparation before you plant in the spring will make maintaining your garden in the hot summer months easier.

A very effective treatment is to clean the garden soil with the fumigant Vapam (TM) before seeding or planting. Soil preparation is important. It should be turned over one week before application. The fumigant may be applied with a common sprinkling can, garden hose or sprayer, and treatment is best in soil temperatures between 65 and 90 degrees.

"Gardeners find Vapam provides a sure, convenient way to clean their soil for better plant growth," says Herb M. Day, sales manager of Stauffer Chemical Company's Specialty Sales Department. "One gallon will take care of a 20 ft. by 20 ft. plot at a cost of about $12-$15 dollars." The fumigant is available at home garden centers under a variety of brand names.

Two to three weeks later you can plant your garden into a clean seed bed.
