Entertainment Tonight To Feature Aretha Franklin

During the week of June 25-29 "Entertainment Tonight" features interviews with Sylvester Stallone, Teri Garr, Aretha Franklin and Dan Aykroyd. Also this week Arnold Schwarzenegger talks about his new movie, "Conan the Destroyer."

Sylvester Stallone tuned up his vocal cords instead of his body for his latest movie "Rhinestone." On Monday's show, he talks about the movie and how co-star Dolly Parton helped him prepare for his role as a cab driver who becomes a country-western singing star.

Tuesday, Teri Garr, the actress who portrayed Dustin Hoffman's girlfriend in "Tootsie," discusses her new film "Firstborn," in which a young boy struggles to keep his family together.

Wednesday, actress Glenda Jackson talks about her new movie "Sakharov."

"Entertainment Tonight" travels to Detroit, Michigan, on Thursday to interview the "Queen of Soul," Aretha Franklin. This summer Ms. Franklin takes her rich voice into the theater as she portrays the late Mahalia Jackson in a play based on the gospel singer's life.

Arnold Schwarzenegger tells "ET" about his role in his new movie "Conan the Destroyer" which features co-stars Grace Jones and Wilt Chamberlain. The second film in the "Conan" series, "Conan the Destroyer" was shot in Mexico City and scenes from the movie are also featured on this episode of "ET."

Price To Host March Of Dimes Telethon

The March of Dimes National Telethon Against Birth Defects will be hosted by Charlene Price, public affairs director of WCCB-TV, Channel 18.

The Telethon will air on Channel 18 Saturday, June 30, at 9 p.m. until Sunday, July 1, at 6 p.m.

During the 21-hour broadcast Charlene Price will host the local portions. The national portion will originate live from Los Angeles and features many top name celebrities and entertainers.

The National Telethon host Hal Linden will be joined by co-hosts Gary Collins, Mary Ann Mobley and Sarah Purcell.

As host of the local portion of the Telethon, Charlene will introduce special guests, describe many of the organizations programs and ask for public support for the prevention of birth defects.

She will share hosting responsibilities with Ray Gooding, community affairs director of WBT Radio, Lionel Norman, director of Comedy Inn and Vivian Nivens, executive director of the Afro-American Cultural Center, among others.

Charlene has been active in preparing for the Telethon. In May, she attended a meeting in Las Vegas with representatives from the 88 other television stations airing the Telethon.

"The trip to Las Vegas, more than anything else, sensitized me to the work being done by the March of Dimes in the area of preventing birth defects and how important it is to people," explained Charlene.

"I also learned a great deal about doing such an extensive broadcast. This is my first time for a Te-

Sarah Purcell, a co-star of the television series, "Real People," joins Charlene Price, of WCCB-TV, Channel 18, for preparations on the March of Dimes National Telethon Against Birth Defects. Charlene will be serving as local host of the 21-hour broadcast.

lethon, the other hosts were able to tell me what to expect," said Charlene.

Through its 26 years of research, medical services and educational grants, the March of Dimes has contributed innovative and meaningful breakthroughs. These areas include surgery on unborn babies, an ambitious new program to prevent prematurity and major work in the field of genetic research.

The Greater Piedmont Chapter of the March of Dimes is one of 650 chapters around the country.
