

Ms. Ellis Plunges Ahead Into Churchwoman Campaign

By Audrey C. Lodato
Post Staff Writer

Modestly proclaiming "I have no idea why" she was selected to represent Pleasant Hill Baptist Church in The Post's "Churchwoman of the Year" contest, Inez Ellis is plunging ahead into the subscription campaign.

"It's nice; I enjoy it," the first-time contestant exclaimed. "I have more time to devote to it now that some other projects are over."

Her pastor, the Rev. J. A. Cuthbertson, described Inez Ellis as "a typical old-fashioned grandmother, very active and concerned with people—a sweet lady." About her participation in the contest, Rev. Cuthbertson added, "I hope she gets a lot of support from our congregation; I hope she's the winner."

Ms. Ellis' varied activities include singing in Pleasant Hill's hymn choir, teaching Sunday School for an adult ladies' class, and serving as deaconess president. She is also president of the church's entertainment committee for new members.

In the community, Ms. Ellis is a member of the Druid Hills Garden Club, president of the Council of Garden Clubs, and treasurer of the Federation of Garden Clubs of North Carolina. She belongs to the Black Caucus and the YWCA, and has been a

Mrs. Inez Ellis
.....Raising money for church

Shaklee distributor for four years.

Ms. Ellis has received The Post in her home for about three years. "I think The Post is very interesting," she enthused. "I like it for the news about our people; we can put our church news in and know that everyone will see it."

Ms. Ellis' husband, James, is behind her ef-orts to raise money for the church. All funds the contestant brings in will go toward the church's debt on its new education building.

The Ellises have three grown children: Jaronza H. Ellis, who lives in Maryland; Brenda Twiggs, of New York; and Beverly Chapman, a Charlotte musician.

Learn History Of Jazz Via CPCC Radio

What's the difference between free jazz and fusion? How did jazz evolve from ragtime to bebop and what's ahead for jazz?

A Central Piedmont Community College radio course, Jazz Alive, will give you a look at the History of jazz beginning July 17.

Students can earn college credit for the course, which can be heard over CPCC's cable radio FM station 107.1, by dialing the Dolly tapes at 373-6400, or by checking out tapes at one of CPCC's learning centers or at the college's library on the main campus at Kings and Elizabeth.

Learning Centers are in Freedom Mall, the Matthews Depot Shopping Center, and at Highway 21, Cornelius.

Radio broadcasts will be Tuesday and Thursday at 11 a.m. or 6 p.m., beginning July 17. Cost is $9.50.

Other audio courses offered at CPCC this summer quarter include You and the Law, Business Law I, and Economics I (Macro).

For information about the courses and to find out how to register, call 373-6422.

SummerStage '84 Offers

Interesting Entertainment

Summerstage '84 will offer interesting entertainment in Uptown Charlotte on June 19, 20 and 22. Make plans to attend some or all of these events. They're a great way to spend your lunch hour.

Performances begin around noon and are completed by 1:30 p.m. The schedule for the week in cludes:

Friday, June 22, First Union National Bank Plaza, Carl Rosen. Enjoy this popular pianist's rendition of popular hits.

In case of rain, the day's program will be cancelled.

These free noontime programs are sponsored by the Central Charlotte Association (CCA), and Trammell Crow, NCNB and WBTV, and First Union National Bank.

At the recent Baby contest-Fashion Show sponsored by the National Council of Negro Women, the following members were present: Mesdames Lillie Irvin, Marilyn McClain, Carrie Gilmore, Connie Cunningham, Nancy Gaston, Mamie Henderson, Lucinda Satterwhite, Bessie Cowan, Frances DeWalt, Anise Rawlings, Ophelia Gray, Themla McKoy, Mary Harris, Rev. Minnie Conner, Sarah Stroud, Emma Crawford and June Davenport.

Little Miss Princess Foster was the winner of the recent Baby Contest sponsored by the National Council of Negro Women. Pictured above are the contestants and their parents or sponsors. (From left to right) They are: Richard McNeill and Mrs. Mary Harris;

Herman Brown and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Brown; Patricia Glenn and mother, Mrs. William Glenn; Jacques Dewalt and parents Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Dewalt; and Princess Foster and parents Mr. and Mrs. Prince Foster.

For Home
Delivery
Call
376-0496

Find Out What's Happening
Read The Charlotte Post
Each Week.

4 DAYS ONLY MONDAY • TUESDAY • WEDNESDAY • THURSDAY

1/2 OFF LABOR AND MATERIALS

Labor 1/2 price when you buy the materials from us.

- Free Sock Arm Covers
- Free Throw Pillows

QUEEN CITY UPHOLSTERY

306 W. Morehead St. 377-9029
"OVER 15 YEARS OF EXPERIENCE"
WORK GUARANTEED!
DAY SERVICE—CREDIT
TERMS AVAILABLE

COUCH
CHAIR
SOFA BED
HIDE A BED
ROCKER
RECLINERS