For D.G. Martin

Set For October 9

"Dinner and Music For DG," a fund-raiser for Congressional candidate D. G. Martin, will be held on Tuesday, October 9, from 7-10 p.m. at the Oaktree Inn on the corner of I-85 and the Billy Graham Parkway. Sponsored by Thomas Moore and Friends, the event will include entertainment by such singers and instrumentalists as Pervis Lee, Julie Johnston, Marty Jowett, Nancy Greer, Ray Owens, and others. Thomas Moore, educational consultant, child advocate, and former host of WBTV's "E.Z. Street," will emcee as well as entertain.

"I used to live with D. G. and his family in the early '70s," Moore remarked, explaining his involvement in the fund-raiser. "I'm bringing my friends together to share our talents for somebody who did a lot for me. This is going to be an exciting occasion. We want everybody to be there."

Tickets must be purchased in advance. Call 376-3434 for more information.

Concord Festival

Concordians are gearing up for one of Concord's finest fall festivals. The "Festival On The Green" will be held on Saturday, October 13, from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m., on the Barber-Scotia College campus quadrangle. The event, sponsored by Barber-Scotia College and WPEG-FM 96, is expected to draw people from the surrounding communities.

The "Festival On The Green" is a potpourri of exhibits and sales, arts and crafts, foods, entertainment, games, and other forms of planned activities that are free and open to the public.

Festival goers should definitely look forward to the center stage entertainment program which will offer jazz, gospel, folk, rhythm and blues, and other music. Clogging and modern dance will also be featured.

The youngsters will find added attraction in clowns, games and prizes along with face painting. There will be plenty of balloons and other delights for the young at heart.

Bordering the festival quadrangle will be exhibits of paintings, art and crafts and photography. Community human service groups and agencies will have booths at the festival to distribute information, perform various demonstrations, and avail themselves for questions.

Welcome fall this season with the Festival On The Green.

Toni Henry

school student. "She'll help me out. But she really wants me to do it on my own."

With ambitions to become an executive secretary, Toni states she will major in Business Law once she enters college.

Her hobbies include swimming, going to the movies and modeling. She has experience modeling for Ivey's and also for various Las Amigas fashion programs. Toni also enjoys the upbeat rhythms of the music of Prince, Michael Jackson and Duran Duran.

She attends Steele Creek A.M.E. Zion Church.

"I'd like to see everyone become united in spite of their differences," offered Toni concerning her views on the state of the country. She elaborates, "I noticed in Jamaica, the people treat everyone the same. 'I wish to see that happen in the United States.'"
