

Mrs. Benny Bernard Richmond
.....The former Miss Cynthia Brown

Miss Cynthia Deloris Brown

Weds Benny Barnard Richmond

Cynthia Deloris Brown and Benny Bernard Richmond recently exchanged vows of love, honor and fidelity.

Their marriage ceremony took place at Clement Memorial AME Zion Church and Rev. Ell Price officiated the service.

Given in marriage by the bride's brother-in-law, the bride was dressed in an ivory basque silhouette gown of Chantilly and Venice lace. Organdy ruffles cascaded into a cathedral length gown. The bodice of the gown was accented with seed pearls, a Queen Anne neckline, and leg of mutton sleeves. The headpiece adorned with seed pearls, included an attached veil edged with string pearls and chantilly lace.

The bride's sister, Donnie Love was the matron of honor. She was attired in a burgandy Victorian style gown, with a sheer yoke on the bodice of the gown, leg of mutton sleeves and a ruffled train. The remaining bridal attendants Vivian Bing, the bride's cousin, Patricia Black and Lila Watkins were dressed similarly.

Both Terilyn Gaither and Jere Harris were flower girls.

Master Andrien Covington, the bride's cousin posed as the ring bearer.

As best man the groom chose his brother, Paul Richmond. Other ushers included; Jessie Banner, Rogers Black, Johnny Hinton,

Harvest Program

Second Calvary Baptist Church presented its Annual Harvest Program Sunday, November 18, at the church. Food baskets were given to needy families - a tradition of the church.
