National Magazine
Features Tidwell

Isaiah Tidwell of Winston-Salem is featured in the February issue of The Crisis, the magazine of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Tidwell appears in a "Portfolio of Black Managers in Corporate America" in the special issue dedicated to blacks who "through their contributions to their companies are demonstrating that competence, qualification, ability and creativity have no color or sex."

Tidwell is senior vice president and regional loan administration manager for Wachovia Bank and Trust Company's Northwest Region, which includes Winston-Salem, Hickory, Morganton, Statesville, Valdese, Lexington and Taylorsville, plus the western section of Virginia and West Virginia.

A native of Charlotte, Tidwell graduated from North Carolina Central University in 1967 and earned a master's degree from the Babcock Graduate School of Management at Wake Forest University in 1980.

He joined Wachovia in Charlotte in 1972 and became a commercial loan officer in 1973. He assumed his current position in 1982.

Tidwell and his wife, Hellen, have two sons. Mrs. Tidwell is director of sponsored programs at Winston-Salem State University.

Druid Hills Club

At the most recent meeting of the Druid Hills Garden Club, held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Long, the guest for the evening was Mrs. Marilyn Pride from the Public Library.

Mrs. Pride presented gardening films for the meeting. The films, "Planting and Transplanting," and "Drying Flowers and Arrangements," were certainly eye-openers for all the club members present. A question and answer period followed the films and the members learned many interesting things about flowers they were not previously aware of. The members were excited about the new information gained and are ready to try out many of the novel ideas as soon as their flowers are in bloom.

Also included during the meeting was a devotional period handled by Mrs. Sophie Blackmon, President of the club. Mrs. Lois Love spoke on old and new business.

Afterwards the hostess, Mrs. Otto Long, served a delicious sit-down meal.

The following members were present: Mrs. Inez Ellis, Mrs. Queen Ellis, Mrs. Minnie Connor, Mrs. Della Simmons, Mrs. Sadie English, Mrs. Hattie McCree, Mrs. Lois Love, Mrs. Sophie Blackmon, Mrs. Hazel Long and Mrs. Eva Wiley.

The next meeting of the Druid Hills Garden Club will be at the home of Mrs. Queen Ellis.
