

Dr. William Greene
Named To Bank
Board Of Directors

Dr. William H. Greene, president of Livingstone College, has been elected to serve on the Salisbury Board of Directors of First Union National Bank, according to David S. Clay, chairman, and C. C. Brewer Jr., city executive.

A graduate of Johnson C. Smith University with a B.A. in political science, he earned his master's and Ph.D. degrees in curriculum and instruction from Michigan State University and the University of Massachusetts.

Dr. Greene is a 32nd Degree Mason, a Shriner and member of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity.

He is also a member of the Public Relations Committee of the American Heart Association, N.C. affiliate and received the 1984 Special Achievement Recognition Award for his service to the Heart Association.

A member of the board of directors of the Salisbury-Rowan Chamber of Commerce and the Salisbury-Rowan Symphony Society, Inc., he has become involved with the Special Olympics and the local United Way Campaign.

Dr. Greene is married to the former Ruth Lipscomb, who is also a recipient of a Ph.D. degree from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst. They have two children: a son, Omari, and daughter, Jamila.

Town Meeting

Relentless growth in south Mecklenburg... Ugly strip development... Traffic jams... Noise and air pollution... What is the real thrust about 2005? How will the 2005 Plan affect neighborhoods?

The Community Issues Council and the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Planning Commission will co-sponsor a town meeting on Tuesday, April 9, at 7:30 p.m. at the Department of Social Services Auditorium at 301 Billingsley Road. The meeting, "Neighborhoods 1985-2005," will inform neighborhood leaders and other concerned citizens on the 2005 Plan and will seek their involvement in the 2005 planning process.

Many citizens are up in arms over Charlotte-Mecklenburg's problems. Martin Cramton, Planning Commission director, and Mike Clds, Community Issues Council president, invite all citizens to this dialogue on planning the community's future. "You can make a difference!"

For more information, contact Patsy Hinson at 332-0154 after 5:00 p.m.

Black Folk Tour

The "North Carolina Black Folk Heritage Tour" is coming to Charlotte on Saturday, April 20. Hosted by the Afro-American Cultural Center and presented by the Folklife Section of the North Carolina Arts Council, the performance will be held in the multi-purpose room at the Little Rock A.M.E. Zion Church at 8 p.m. General admission is $5; students and senior citizens, $3.

The performance will feature blues, quartet singing, contemporary gospel, buckdancing, storytelling, African dancing, and break dancing. For ticket information, call the AACC at 374-1565.

Annual Easter Party

The West Charlotte Optimist Club will host its Third Annual Easter Party for Senior Citizens on Easter Monday, April 8. The festivities will take place at the West Charlotte Recreation Center, 2400 Kendall Drive, from 1 to 3 p.m. The party will feature prizes, games, and music.

In addition, the Club will be conducting an Easter Egg Hunt for children ages three to 12, beginning at 1 p.m. at the same location.
