

Pan Hellenic Council Honors "Outstanding" Seniors

Ten outstanding Charlotte-Mecklenburg seniors were honored recently by the Charlotte Graduate Pan Hellenic Council.

This marks the seventh consecutive year of the Senior Honors Banquet, this year held at McDonald's Cafeteria.

The following students were recognized and received specially prepared plaques for their exceptional academic achievements:

Cynthia Fant, North Mecklenburg; Doris Nash, West Mecklenburg; Tammi Coleman, Harding; Kim Johnson, South Mecklenburg; Terri Blackmon, Garinger; Roderick Robinson, Olympic; David Lucas II, West Charlotte; Michael Ingram, Independence; Camille Parks, Myers Park; and Ursula Wright, East Mecklenburg.

Guest speaker was Arthur Griffin, member of the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Board of Education. Awards were presented by Chip Hammonds, Ellen Hamilton and Leroy Waters.

Officers of the 1985 Pan Hellenic Council are Charles Knight, president; Ellen Hamilton, vice president; Chip Hammonds, secretary; Joseph Swain, assistant secretary; Esther Hargrave, corresponding secretary; Brenda Foster, treasurer; Clarissy Knox, chaplain; and R. Douglas Spears, parliamentarian.

The banquet committee was composed of Marilyn McClain who served as chairperson, Esther Hargrave, David L. Grier, Grace Stevenson, Joseph Swain, Linda Sagoe, Sarah Stroud, Odell Robinson, and Marie L. Grier.

The council also provided a workshop for the honored students last weekend. Three college students - Charles Gibson from Furman, Crystal McKenzie of Appalachian State, and Paul Hendricks from Morehouse College - talked to the high school seniors about college life and what to expect.

"The awards banquet is one way the Pan Hellenic Council projects itself into the community," stated Marilyn McClain, chairman of the banquet committee. "We also sponsor a fund raising Baby Contest each year, we visit nursing homes and on Thanksgiving provide food for a needy family." The Council is a clearing house for Greek fraternities and sororities and has as members eight organizations.
