United Presbyterian Women Will Sponsor First "Ebony Rally" Sunday

By Teresa Simmons
Post Managing Editor

On Sunday, June 30, the United Presbyterian Women (UPW) of C.N. Jenkins Memorial Presbyterian Church will sponsor its first Ebony Rally at 5 p.m.

Inez Montgomery, the group's president, stated that the featured guests will be the Our Lady of Consolation Gospel Choir of Charlotte. Mistress of Ceremony will be Eva McClelland, who is also chairperson of the UPW Program Committee.

Church captains for the event are Lois Bowen, Sarah Coleman, Doretha Davis, Millicent Grier, Gwendolyn Leake and Thelma Russell.

The public is cordially invited to share in this program with church members of C.N. Jenkins. The church is located at 1421 Statesville Avenue. The church is pastored by Rev. George C. Goodman.

MT. MORIAH BAPTIST

The Junior Choir of Mt. Moriah Baptist Church, Matthews, will celebrate its anniversary Sunday, June 30, at 3 p.m.

Guest speaker will be Rev. W. Galman, pastor of Red Branch Baptist Church, Mint Hill. His choir and congregation will accompany him.

Dinner will be served to everyone following the service. The public is cordially invited to attend both the service and the dinner, to be served in the lower auditorium of the church.

Evening worship and Bible class will begin following the serving of dinner.

Rev. J.C. Robinson is host pastor. The church is located at 381 Crestdale Rd.

ST. JOHN BAPTIST

The theme Sunday, June 30, at New St. John Baptist Church may not be exactly what you suppose at first. "Disturb The Fire" will be the topic discussed by the minister, Rev. Robert Leak.

Also during the 11 a.m. worship service the youth of the church will have complete charge of the service.

At 4 p.m. the Building Fund Committee will sponsor the Charlotte Combination Choir, under the direction of Paul Hicks, in concert. Also featured will be the Combined choirs of New St. John.

The musical program is expected to be a spiritually fulfilling one and you are invited to partake in the making of a joyous noise to God.

Land Loss Prevention Project Receives $2,000

The North Carolina Association of Black Lawyers-Land Loss Prevention Project has recently received a grant from the Fund for Southern Communities in the amount of $2,000 to support the Land Stewardship Pilot Training Program.

This unique program will work with representatives of local churches to explore values towards land ownership, legal and technical aspects of land ownership and rights-responsibilities regarding land ownership. The Rural Church Committee of the General Baptist State Convention with the Divinity School of Shaw University, a predominantly black, private college in Raleigh, North Carolina, will be working with the Project in carrying out the goals of the pilot program.

The Project is a non-profit corporation which seeks to continue to provide legal assistance to low income people who are threatened with land loss by referring them to private attorneys on a fixed nominal fee basis. The Project, located at
