Williette Robertson
To Participate In
"Miss Teen" Finals

Former Charlotte Post Beauty of the Week, Williette Robertson, has been selected to participate in the Modern Miss Teen Scholarship State Finals, to be held in Charlotte at the Adam's Mark Hotel in November.

Robertson is the daughter of Melvina Robertson and at 17 years of age she is multi-talented and a high scholastic achiever.

Presently a senior at Myers Park High School, Robertson participated, this summer, in East Carolina University's Summer Ventures Program in science and math. Her studies were in Twentieth Century Physics, Matrix Algebra with computer applications and Number's Theory Form. Robertson also presented a seminar entitled, "Number Theory with Primek Numbers," during the Ventures program.

An experienced dancer, Robertson has danced with the Dance Connections at Spirit Square and on the last day of the Summer Ventures Program she coreographed a modern dance routine and presented it at the program's talent show.

Other involvements for Robertson include participation in the Youth Involvement Council; Junior Achievement; Youth Advisor Council; Latin Club and Honor Society; the American Red Cross; the Children's Theatre; and Upward Bound; and she was included in Who's Who among High School Students.

Robertson attends Mayfield Memorial Baptist Church, where she is an usher.

Robertson's many outstanding qualifications were noticed by the Modern Miss officials. The Modern Miss Teen Scholarship Pageant is designed to recognize young women, 13 to 18, who excel in scholastic achievement and community involvement. Contestants are judged on poise, personality, grooming and speech or talent presentation, as well as scholastic and civic achievements. Entrants must have an 80 or better grade average and document at least 10 hours of volunteer service to a community or charitable organization.

This competition is the official state preliminary for the Modern Miss National Finals where Modern Miss finalists from all states will compete for over $25,000 in scholarship awards and many other special prizes. Throughout the year, the National Modern Miss Scholarship Program will award over $600,000 in scholarships and tuition grants to many outstanding teenagers in competition.

Post Office Serious About Dog Bites

The confrontation between dog and letter carrier has become almost classic humor. Is it really funny? The Charlotte Post Office doesn't think so, and neither should anyone in this community.

Last year, almost 6,000 of this nation's letter carriers were bitten by dogs. Many of the injuries were serious, and some of the victims suffered permanent disfigurement. The cost to the Postal Service and dog owners who subsequently paid both injury costs and punitive damages in many dog bite cases exceeded $2 million. Many more dollars and injuries can be counted among non-postal workers and individuals who were also bitten by dogs.

The common assertion that "He doesn't bite" is not supported by the painful statistics. Any dog will bite if it feels it is protecting its territory or its owners.

The simple solution to this problem is for pet owners to recognize their responsibility to keep their dogs restrained by a fence or secure leash or tether.

Dog owners who do not restrain their pets are risking lawsuits and interruption of home mail delivery. The Postal Service will seek to recover damages when a carrier is bitten, and counsels its bitten carriers wishing to sue on their own. The Postal Service will also interrupt mail delivery where loose dogs are a problem - including, in extreme cases, interruption of delivery to entire neighborhoods.

These remedies need not occur if Charlotte residents do their part to reduce dog bite injuries by keeping their pets properly restrained.
