

Aldora VanDiver and John Davis, members of the bus committee have a large responsibility. But they do their job well.

realizing how many others depend upon them. (Photo by Bernard Reeves)

Saints Eric Cloud and Clinton Perry III took a little time out from the busy agenda of House of Prayer's convocation to eat. Pictured here Sister Rosale Gilliam gives services with a smile. (Photo by Bernard Reeves)

Saint Nira Grier's job at the snack bar ranks in importance as well as some of the other activities taking place at the House of Prayer. While she doesn't feed the spirit, she does play a part in feeding the body. (Photo by Bernard Reeves)

It takes practice to get things perfect. That's something with which the House of Prayer's Brass Band is well acquainted. Here, they are pictured during one of their practice sessions, making sure that all mistakes have been corrected. (Photo by Bernard Reeves)

House of Prayer members, (left to right): Rose Bryan, Sarah Miller, Al Cloud, and John Davis make up the Coalition of Concerned Citizens. They're

instrumental in voter registration and participation in community affairs. (Photo by Bernard Reeves)

Any action calls for good planning. To keep up the good work of the Coalition of Concerned Citizens, members (left to right) Daryl Meadows, Sarah Miller, Al

Cloud, John Davis, and Rose Bridges, work hard at putting good plans into action. (Photo by Bernard Reeves)

The Honorable W. McCollough; "A Quarter Century of Excellence"