

Apostle Ronald Belton
.....First Ward Mission

Apostle Ronald Belton Is Member Of General Council

Apostle R. Belton is a native of the Charlotte area. This 29-year-old minister joined the House of Prayer when he was three months old.

He was reared in the House of Prayer and was very active by holding several positions. Some of these appointments were: a member of the Boy Scouts, Drumming Bugle Corps, member of the Concert Band, McCollough Notes, Deacon, McCollough Tiger Band, president of the No. 2 Shout Band, president of the Youth Department of the Mother House, and the assistant pastor of First Ward Mission. This spiritually inclined young man attended Matthews House of Prayer, Charlotte Mother House and First Ward Mission. His sincere dedication and determination enhanced the motivation of many youths in the House of Prayer.

A graduate of East Mecklenburg High School, Apostle Belton attended Central Piedmont Community College and is a graduate of the McCollough Seminary in Richmond, Va. He has been employed by C. D. Stampley Enterprises and the U.S. Post Office. During the construction of the Grace Emanuel Apartments, he served as an inspector and advisor. The First Ward community has been inspired by his continued devotion in planning banquets, programs, and other church functions. For the past eight years, he has pastored congregations of over 150 members at First Ward Mission.

Apostle R. Belton is also a member of the General Council. This appointment requires him to travel throughout the kingdom checking the proper implementations of the rules and regulations of this organization. His future endeavors include being submissive and a useful tool to help his leader, Bishop W. McCollough, and to spread the gospel of the United House of Prayer For All People.
