...Delivers keynote address
Dr. Samuel Proctor
Is Winston-Salem
Founder's Day Speaker

Winston-Salem State University will celebrate Homecoming-Founder's Day during the week of October 27 - November 2. The theme for the occasion is "The Tradition of Excellence Continues."

Dr. Samuel Proctor, pastor of the Abyssinian Baptist Church in New York, will deliver the keynote address for the Founder's Day Convocation at 10 a.m. Thursday, October 31. The program will be held in the Kenneth R. Williams Auditorium.

Seven former faculty-staff members of the university will be honored as professors emeriti during the convocation. Dr. George Hall and Dr. Hazel Nangle will be recognized and posthumous awards will be presented to the families of Mr. Jasper Atkins, Mr. Herbert Clark, Dr. James Dillard, Miss Elva James and Dr. Joseph Patterson. Dr. Rachel Diggs Wilkinson, a member of the class of 1933, will receive the Simon Green Atkins Award as distinguished alumnus for 1985-86.

The program will also include the formal presentation of the latest installations in the university's Sculpture Garden - "Arbor Spirit" by Roberto Bertioia of New York, and "Po Tolo" by Tyrone Mitchell, also of New York. Both sculptors will be on hand to discuss their works.

Major events for the week include:

Thursday, October 31, 10 a.m. - Founder's Day Program, Kenneth R. Williams Auditorium - free; 7:30 p.m., Coronation of Miss WSSU - Miss Rita Archer, Williams Auditorium - free; Friday, November 1, 1:30 p.m. - Red & White Mini Parade-Pep Rally - Campus; 9 p.m., Alumni Ball Featuring Twin City Players, Benton Convention Center - fee charged; Saturday, November 2, 10 a.m. - Homecoming Parade. Route: Begin at 4th and Broad Streets, east on 4th to Claremont Street, south on Claremont to Cromartie Street (campus); 1:30 p.m., Homecoming Game - WSSU vs. Johnson C. Smith University, Bowman Gray Stadium, fee charged; 4:30 p.m., Homecoming Barbeque, Gaines Center, fee charged; 7 p.m., first Homecoming Show - Melba Moore and Freddie Jackson, Williams Auditorium, fee charged; 10 p.m., Homecoming Disco, Hyatt Hotel Ballroom, fee charged.

Shaw Alumni Meeting

The alumni chapter of Shaw University will meet Sunday, November 3, at 4 p.m. at First Baptist Church-West, 1801 Oaklawn Ave.

Scheduled for the meeting will be a discussion on the alumni's participation in the annual homecoming and founder's day program to be observed the week of November 18.

The 120th Founder's Day convocation will be held in the Raleigh Memorial Auditorium Friday, November 22, at 11 a.m. At the banquet, to be held later that evening, each alumni chapter will sponsor a "Miss Alumni" contestant. The banquet will be held at the university's student union building.

The National Alumni meeting will begin with a Saturday morning breakfast.

All former students are urged to attend the meeting Sunday and to leave addresses and phone numbers. Cedric Jones will preside over the local alumni meeting.
