Tabernacle Baptist Church Pastor Rev. Stackhouse Will Be Ordained Sunday

By Jalyne Strong
Post Staff Writer

Rev. C. David Stackhouse, pastor of Tabernacle Baptist Church, will be ordained Sunday, November 3.

The ordination service will take place at Tabernacle, located at 1135 Redbud St., at 7 p.m. Rev. Tommy Davis of Shiloh Institutional Baptist Church will be guest speaker and he will be accompanied by his congregation and choirs.

Rev. Anthony Jinwright, pastor of Salem Baptist, will preside over the ceremony.

Installed as pastor of Tabernacle Baptist in August, 1985, Rev. Stackhouse is a young evangelical minister, as well as, a teacher and masterful preacher of the gospel. His educational background includes a degree of arts from Clinton Junior College, Rock Hill, S.C.; a B.A. degree from Livingston College, Salisbury, N.C.; and a master of divinity degree from Hood Theological Seminary in Salisbury, N.C. He is recognized as an Old Testament scholar and revivalist.

Rev. Stackhouse is married to Angela Parker and they have two sons and one daughter.

Ministers and friends from all over will be present at the ordination of Rev. Stackhouse this Sunday. The public is urged to attend.

NEW ST. JOHN

"God gave man dominion over all creeping things upon the earth," quotes Rev. Robert Leak. "In order to live up to this task, men need to find salvation and be open to exploring and doing."

There's a need for this type of man, according to Rev. Leak. Therefore on Sunday, November 3, the theme of the morning sermon at New St. John will be "Seeking and Searching for Consecrated and Dedicated Men." The sermon will be delivered at 11 a.m.

At 2 p.m., at New St. John, the Rev. John Cousar of St. Luke Baptist Church, Rev. George Goodman of C.M. Jenkins Presbyterian, and Rev. Fred Alexander of the United House of Prayer will represent the Father, Son and Holy Ghost for the Trustees Annual Day program. Following the service, free dinner, with all the trimmings, will be served. All are invited to attend services at New St. John. The church is located at 2000 St. John Rd. Rev. Robert Leak is pastor.

MT. OLIVE

The Gospel Chorus of Mt. Olive Baptist Church will be in concert this Sunday at 2:30 p.m. Sister Gardenia Barringer and Sister Louise Conners will lead the choral event. SEMINARY CENTER

The Metrolina Seminary Center, a division of Shaw Divinity School in Raleigh, N.C., is now holding fully accredited theological classes at Mt. Carmel Baptist Church, 3201 Tuckaseegee Rd., every Tuesday at 7 p.m. The center offers an 18-unit program (with 18 hours per unit) in such studies as the Bible, Systematic Theology, Paul's Letters, New Testament 1, 2, and 3, English, and some 40 other courses. This is the only program of theological studies in Charlotte that is fully accredited by the National Board of Seminaries, and it leads toward the master of divinity degree. Persons holding the advanced diploma are granted membership in the National Alumni organization of the Southeastern Theological Seminary. The local center has 65 pastors, ministers and lay people and expects another 20 by November.

The cost for a full course ranges between $30 to $40. To enroll call director Dr. William Lee Jr. at 596-3821 for more information.

Dr. Leon C. Riddick, Rev. Fred Gibson, Rev. Jerry Sanders, Mrs. Elizabeth Steger, and Mrs. Bessie Wilbon serve on the certified teaching staff.
